U. S. SUPREME COURT PREPARES FOR HISTORIC INTEGRATION DISCUSSION

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today he may have told friends he believes the rate of the school integration process should be slowed down. But the President denied at a news conference that he ever said he wishes the Supreme Court had not ruled in 1954 in favor of integration in the nation's public schools. Eisenhower also said in effect that the Justice Department will take part in arguments before the Supreme Court Thursday on the school integration crisis at Little Rock, Ark. And he said in reply to a question that he is sure there will be no great divergence between his personal views on the integration issue and those to be set forth in the expected Justice Department brief. The President also declared the consequences will be terrible if some states close their public schools in an effort to block court-ordered mixing of the white and Negro races. Closing the schools under such circumstances would result in a whole basketful of litigation, Eisenhower said.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The South's deep-seated resistance to integration is being tested in the courts and applauded in the emergency states' rights meeting of the Arkansas Legislature today as the U. S. Supreme Court prepares for its historic session.

The nine justices meet Thursday. At stake is whether the high court will grant Little Rock's Central High School a breathing spell in its year-old integration program or force immediate reacceptance of Negroes into its classrooms.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas asked the opening session of the Legislature Tuesday for power to close the schools rather than bow to any federal race-mixing order. He said integration never could be constitutionally enforced upon a school.

As a last-ditch measure, the governor offered the lawmakers a bill to set up segregated classrooms within an integrated school. Within hours, a special House Education Committee recommended passage of a total of 12 segregation bills.

The Little Rock School Board filed a brief with the Supreme Court saying it would be unable to operate Central High under present conditions in the city.

At Gainesville, Fla., University of Florida announced that a Negro had qualified for admittance this fall to do graduate work.

So far there has been no integration violence. Many developments on the integration front featured legal Louisiana — The Shreveport school boards as the opening day of school approached. They included:

Virginia — The state's policy of massive resistance to integrated schools suffered another setback when U. S. Dist. Judge John Paul declined to approve in its entirety the school districting plan of the Charlottesville School Board.

Tennessee — Fifteen Negro first-graders enrolled without incident for desegregated classes in seven Nashville city schools. The plan created a new district around Nashville City schools.

North Carolina — The Charlotte School Board rejected the applications of 23 Negro children for transfer to white schools. At Winston-Salem, 135 pupils at the white Easton Elementary School, where 3 Negroes have been assigned for the fall term, asked for transfers to other white schools.

Oklahoma — Two Negro children showed up at Preston Elementary School and became the first to attend that previously all-white school. At Muskogee the NAACP filed suits charging integration was being avoided in two other Oklahoma school districts.

Mississippi — A constitutional amendment to allow the state to issue tax anticipation notes, which must be repaid by the end of the current biennium next May 31, was given Tuesday by Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith and Commonwealth Treasurer Robert F. Kent.

Smith and Kent said that, without the borrowed funds, the state treasury would be 28 million dollars in the red by November. The two state officials also predicted in a joint statement that more money will have to be borrowed before the end of the biennium in order to keep the Commonwealth functioning.

"The situation will continue to become worse," they said, "because tax revenues more and more are falling substantially below the governor's estimates." The loan was requested by Gov. Lee. Under law, the Commonwealth may borrow funds to meet current expenses if the money is paid back from revenue which the state obtains prior to the close of the biennium.

Incidentally, citizens won't have to throw away their flags after next July 4 if they are of the new 49-star variety. A presidential order allows flags on hand when a new state is admitted to be used until they become unserviceable.

By law enacted in 1818, another star must be added to the flag next Independence Day—the first July 4 following admission of the new state. There has been no established procedure for rearranging the flag. In 1912 President William Howard Taft approved the present 48-star design which was recom-

Alaskans Favor Statehood By Overwhelming Majority

By WILLIAM J. TOBIN

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—Vast, rugged and beautiful Alaska—slim in population but mighty in size and potential—is going to become the 49th state of the Union.

With 113 of 297 precincts reporting, immediate statehood was favored 19,860 to 3,814.

Two other propositions, which must be approved if statehood is to become a fact, also were passing by the same margin. No. 2, on the ballot dealt with acceptance of the present boundaries as boundaries of the new state. No. 3 provides for the transfer of 103,350,000 acres of public land to the new state, and reserves power to a president to make certain military land withdrawals in time of national emergency.

Forecasts on the eve of the election had predicted not much more than a 2-1 margin for statehood.

Most of the opposition had been based on a fear that increased costs of state government would mean a new boost in taxes for the territory's 215,000 residents.

However, the heavy outpouring at the polls was viewed by most observers as an indication that statehood was headed for approval by a wide margin.

"It's a wonderful night," said Interior Secretary Fred A. Seaton, the administration's greatest booster of Alaskan statehood. Seaton was in Juneau for the vote tabulation.

The voting was so heavy at many precincts that the supply of official election ballots was exhausted before the polls closed.

Airplanes were pressed into service to carry new supplies of ballots to some precincts. At others, sample election ballots were put into official use.

The special statehood voting was paired with a primary election to nominate candidates for the first state offices.

For the first time, Alaskans were voting for candidates seeking two seats in the U. S. Senate, one seat in the U. S. House, for governor and for secretary of state.

If statehood is approved, the candidates nominated in the primary will stand for election Nov. 25.

After the general election results have been certified in November, the President will issue a proclamation creating the new state. The proclamation is expected in late December or early January.

Smith and Kent said that, without the borrowed funds, the state treasury would be 28 million dollars in the red by November. The two state officials also predicted in a joint statement that more money will have to be borrowed before the end of the biennium in order to keep the Commonwealth functioning.

"The situation will continue to become worse," they said, "because tax revenues more and more are falling substantially below the governor's estimates." The loan was requested by Gov. Lee. Under law, the Commonwealth may borrow funds to meet current expenses if the money is paid back from revenue which the state obtains prior to the close of the biennium.

Incidentally, citizens won't have to throw away their flags after next July 4 if they are of the new 49-star variety. A presidential order allows flags on hand when a new state is admitted to be used until they become unserviceable.

Dag Arrives In Jordan on Peace Tour

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Dag Hammarskjöld arrived in Jordan today for the first round of talks to stabilize the Middle East enough for U. S. and British troops to go home.

The U. N. secretary general was greeted at the Amman airport by Premier Samir Rifai. They went directly to King Hussein's hilltop palace. Hammarskjöld declined to discuss his peacemaking mission with reporters.

Hammarskjöld and three aides flew to Amman from Beirut in a U. N. courier plane. During an overnight stop in the Lebanese capital, he conferred only with U. N. officials.

After a side trip to Geneva Saturday for the opening of the second atoms-for-peace conference, Hammarskjöld is expected to visit Cairo next week for talks with President Nasser of the United Arab Republic. He will return to Beirut to discuss withdrawal of the American forces, will also visit Baghdad and may go also to Saudi Arabia.

The secretary general flew into Beirut from New York Tuesday night shortly after a gunfight on the road from the airport into the capital. All was quiet again when he drove into town under escort of Lebanese armored cars and security police.

The U. N. General Assembly last Thursday unanimously approved an Arab resolution calling on Hammarskjöld to make arrangements to facilitate the early withdrawal of U. S. troops from Lebanon and British troops from Jordan. He also was asked to consult with the (Turn to Page Twelve)

Jersey Troopers Are Injured in Car Crash

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—Two New Jersey state policemen turned troopers were injured today in the wreck of their automobile near the Carlisle interchange of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

They are Sgt. William H. Wagner and Trooper Robert A. Miller, of Woodbury. Both were taken to the Carlisle Hospital.

Trooper Thomas G. Connor, of the Pennsylvania state police said their car, with Miller at the wheel, was entering the turnpike ramp west of the Carlisle interchange when the car hit the center barrier, swerved to the opposite side of the pavement and crashed into a utility pole.

The two were traveling to Nanty Glo for the funeral of Pennsylvania State Trooper Stephen Gyurke, who died Sunday at Mount Pleasant of injuries suffered in an accident on the Pennsylvania Turnpike last Friday.

The hospital said Wagner's condition was serious and Miller's fair.

Annual Elk Convention Ends With Big Parade

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Elks State Assn. ended its 52nd annual convention today after a final business session and a downtown parade.

Units from 10 Elk lodges were entered in the parade to compete for $1,000 in cash prizes. The units were from Lewistown, Hanover, Pottstown, Lebanon, Huntingdon, Williamsport and Harrisburg.

More than 500 Elks from 125 lodges in the state attended the three-day convention.

Pennsylvanians Are In Ohio Pike Accident

CLEVELAND (AP)—A collision of two trucks near the Brecksville interchange of the Ohio Turnpike Tuesday night killed Delbert Cline, 45, of Pulaski (Lawrence County), Pa. His was the 13th traffic accident death on the 24-mile toll road this year.

Patrolmen said Cline was a passenger in a tractor driven by Eugene Hayes, 34, of Sharpsville, Pa., and that the tractor rammed the rear of a westbound steel truck. Hayes was treated at Marymount Hospital for head injuries and released.

No Let-Up in Bombarding Of Quemoy

By SPENCER MOOSA

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The heavy Communist bombardment of Quemoy and the Tan Islands continued for the fifth day today, but no Communist air or sea activity around the Nationalist-held islands was reported.

More than 8,300 shells rained on two of the three Tan islands in Amoy Bay and on the bigger island of Quemoy, 15 miles east of the big Red port of Amoy.

The Nationalists said their guns fired back but did not disclose to what extent.

The islands of Tatan and Erhitan got the worst pasting, 4,000 rounds in half an hour. The Nationalists made no announcement of casualties, but Tatan is only 96 acres in size and Erhitan only 40 acres.

The islands are 2 1/2 miles from Amoy and are key posts for observation of shipping to and from the Red port.

The Nationalists reported successes in their return fire Tuesday, claiming their guns knocked out artillery emplacements on Wuyun, a small island in Amoy Bay, and on Ting Tateng Island, and blew up ammunition and gasoline dumps on Wuyun and at Weitou, on the mainland.

By Nationalist count, the Communists by noon today had fired a total of nearly 100,000 shells since they drastically stepped up the westpocket Formosa Strait war last Saturday.

Radio Peiping continued to charge the United States with heightening tension in the Formosa Strait and accused the Americans of threatening Communist China's security.

Although the U. S. 7th Fleet was on the alert, there was no unusual activity in the fleet.

Former Turnpike Chairman Given Prison Sentence

HARRISBURG (AP)—G. Franklin McCortley today was given a two to four month prison sentence on conviction of misconduct in office while chairman of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission.

Sentencing Judge Homer L. Kreider also directed that McCortley be removed from the Turnpike Commission, pay court costs and a $1,000 fine. McCortley's attorney immediately took initial steps to appeal the sentence to the State Superior Court.

The suspended commission chairman was convicted of exercising a "criminal intent and corrupt motive."

The Pittsburgh Democrat and industrialist was accused at his trial last year of keeping a driver on the commission payroll to chauffeur Commission Chairman Thomas J. Evans for eight months after Evans resigned from the commission.

McCortley contended at his trial that he assigned Daniel J. Dalto to drive Evans because Evans had qualified for the service by offering his time as a consultant on Turnpike matters of a complex nature.

Dalto was paid $2,800 for his services. McCortley appealed the conviction but his motion for a new trial was turned down by the court.

McCortley, suspended from the commission early last year, (Turn to Page Twelve)

PRESIDENT COVERS WIDE RANGE OF SUBJECTS IN CONFERENCE WITH PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today he will campaign for a Republican Congress this year on the issue of reducing the government's deficits.

Eisenhower told his news conference he is going to stress in campaign talks the necessity for cutting the deficit and putting the economy on a sound, healthy basis.

The President gave no indication of how much campaigning he expects to do. He said he had not promised, for instance, to campaign in New York.

As a preliminary to voicing his own views on reduction in red ink spending, Eisenhower said he is going to study every major item of a forthcoming governmental budget to see if it can be cut for the benefit of America.

In response to a question, he said he had no comment at the moment on the possibility of a tax increase.

The denial that he has made any speaking commitments was made in a discussion of the New York campaign. Eisenhower said the New York State convention's choice of Nelson Rockefeller as the GOP candidate for governor and of Rep. Kenneth B. Keating as the nominee for senator gave the party a fine ticket that he hopes is elected.

Eisenhower dealt with these other subjects in the wide-ranging news conference:

INTEGRATION—He said he may have told friends he believes the efforts to push school integration should be slowed down. But he denied he has said he wishes the 1954 Supreme Court ruling against segregation had not been made.

At the same time Eisenhower would accept the high court's invitation to take part in tomorrow's Supreme Court session on the Little Rock integration case.

OFFSHORE ISLANDS—The offshore islands held by the Chinese Nationalists — islands which in the last week or so have been under heavy attack by Communist China — have taken on increased importance to the United States in over-all strategy dealing with defense of Formosa.

However, Eisenhower once again refused to say whether the United States would consider a Red invasion of Quemoy, Matsu and other offshore islands a matter for U. S. intervention.

Discussing the increased importance of the islands, Eisenhower said Nationalist China now has deployed about one-third of its military forces there.

Previously, he said, those islands were regarded largely as an outpost.

CONGRESS — Eisenhower said he wants another week or (Turn to Page Twelve)

Pittsburgh Woman Held In Stabbing of Man

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Police are holding Evelyn Griffin, 39, of Pittsburgh's Hill District, in connection with the fatal stabbing today of her companion, Charles Griffin, 58.

Police said an argument broke out between the victim and B. G. Patterson, 40, of Midland, Beaver County, after Patterson and Mrs. Griffin had gone to a friend's apartment.

Officers said Mrs. Griffin stabbed Griffin in the chest. Patterson is being held as a material witness.

There is only one way in the world that Democrats can win a national victory this year, and that is by default. The only way we Republicans can lose is by defeating ourselves.

Alcorn said that committee members agreed that the Eisenhower administration has what he termed an exceptional record to sell to the voters this fall.

He said the recession "has bottomed out during the spring months and there has been a steady, continuing upturn ever since."

Following action by an examining Council, at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon in Pennsylvania Avenue Baptist church, a formal service was held in the church last evening for ordination of Philip Hook, son of the parish pastor, the Rev. Ernest A. Hook, and Mrs. Hook.

Nine pastor delegates, 13 lay delegates, five visiting clergymen, along with interested friends, met at 2:30 p. m. in the flower-decorated auditorium of the church to hear "Phil" tell of his conversion, call to the ministry and doctrinal beliefs.

Pastoral and lay delegates were then organized into an examining Council, with the Rev. Robert DeBoer, of First Baptist (Turn to Page Twelve)

What with golf matches approaching the last gasp, the sports-minded are now watching the approaching world series. We hear reverberations of "kill the umpire" and "catch it on the fly." Being a housewife, however, we interpret the language a bit differently. We are interested in "killing the fly" and the quicker the better! As for the life span of the umpire and merely catching the fly—
we leave that up to the baseball fans. You've undoubtedly become aware of those nasty household pests just recently—now's the season when the winged little creatures decide to come to dinner. A ball bat doesn't help and no matter how good a swatter you are, you don't get too far when it comes to eliminating a "fly." That's why we were charmed to locate a new spray—handy and deadly—actually controlled for fast knockdown and kill. You need this "little giant" in your home or on your patio, because it does the job so swiftly and efficiently. It's safe to use around children, food and pets (but please cover your fish bowl unless you have some demons of the deep that you'd be happier without!).

Use "Cenol"—the Little Giant controlled Aerosol that kills flies, mosquitoes, gnats and other insects
now resistant to D.D.T.
This spray is highly effective and handy to have around at this time of year.
It's featured at The Warren Drug Store—really does a terrific job. The price for one can of "Cenol"—just $1.09 plus tax. Try it!

The CVCC annual swimming meet slated for last Sunday was postponed because of rain!
After all, the proud parents didn't want to get wet—they only come to watch. Many lads and lassies suffered throughout the day—watching the skies and hoping—no good!
However, the meet will be held Monday, September 1 at 2 p.
m. with the usual buffet supper to follow. Incidentally, this being a long holiday weekend, the general Mr. B. would certainly appreciate prompt reservations
—not only for the Sunday swim
supper but for the Labor Day Country Fair and Cake Walk on Saturday.

Comments while "reflecting"
—In the current Saturday Evening Post is an article by none other than Maurice Chevalier—who notes forthwith a bit about parties—says he (and we take literary license—"there are usually two kinds of people at parties—those who want to go home and those who don't—unfortunately they are often married to each other."... (or words to that effect).

Say girls—if your "better half" has been a perfect bore about the budget; has hounded you about how you handle the housework and has become a real "drip" about the way you laundry his white shirts—kindly lend an ear. There's a fine chance that you can balance the budget; manage the men-agere and slip up on the shirt situation the right way. It's actually a three-in-one proposition (and that's no oil)—just insist that he purchase the wonderful "drip 'n' dry" shirts.
It's as easy as that—just wash and let drip dry—very little or no ironing required!

You get it! You balance the budget as you do it yourself;
you have more time to do other housework if you spend less time worrying about laundering white shirts and the "drip" can dry his tears when he has his shirt ready to put on!

The sum and substance
is that you can now purchase famous "Arrow" drip
"n' dry shirts at The Style
Shop at a practical saving.
That's right!—in white—drip and dry shirts styled by Arrow—were $5—now $4—so what are you waiting for?—if it's "the best in menswear"—The Style Shop has it.

Sears '58 Model Lists 135,000; Prices Down

The biggest catalog sent out by Sears, Roebuck and Co. in the past 37 years is now being distributed to customers in the Warren area, Mrs. Zoe Helm, local Sears catalog sales office manager, said this week.

Containing over 1500 pages,
the new Sears catalog lists more than 135,000 items for the home and family with more than 20% of the products shown in full color.

Prices in the new catalog show an average decrease of 1.5% from last spring, Mrs.
Helm said. Wearing apparel, modernization, repair and housewares items and automotive recreation and farm needs are among the merchandise items showing major price reductions.

Many new merchandise items are listed for the first time in the new catalog. Among the new products are a free-standing, self-installed fireplace;
a newly-styled line of bicycles with dual headlights; a complete line of parts and accessories for imported and sports cars, and ceramic floor tile which can be installed by the homeowner.

The space age and growing interest in satellites is recognized by the new Sears catalog with a full line of terrestrial and celestial high-powered telescopes, Mrs. Helm said.

near Chestnut street was opened to traffic this morning.
Track supervisor Ray Rhoe said his crew would probably be at the crossing another two weeks putting finishing touches on the job which was rushed because West Side merchants complained of blocked traffic.
The crossing at Chestnut Street near the depot building will not be leveled at this time, according to Rhoe. However, sidewalks will be put in on the Fourth Avenue crossing. Too hot and soft blacktop prevented opening Pennsylvania avenue crossing late Tuesday evening.

Man Who Terrorized Rural Family Indicted

Two Edinboro brothers were indicted in absentia Tuesday by a Mayville, N. Y. Grand Jury which returned a true bill against them for the armed robbery of Mother & Son Grocery in Jamestown March 21.

Eugene Warren, 21, and brother, Russell, 23, began their early spring banditry by stealing a car from John P. Wendell, 510 Third avenue, about 3:30 p. m. the day of the crime.
A wild chase after the holdup ended early that night when Eugene Warren terrorized the Sugar Grove family of Lawrence Briggs before being picked up by his brother on a lonely road and disappearing.

The brothers, now in custody at Erie for other crimes, realized approximately $600 loot from the supermarket. Wendell's car was found abandoned in Sugar Grove. A car stolen from the Briggs' family was found abandoned a short distance down Lottsville Road out of Sugar Grove.

Specific charges are robbery and grand larceny in the first degree.

State C.D. Director Offers New Advice About an Attack

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dr. Richard Gerstell has only one thing to say about any plans for pre-bombing evacuation in case of an enemy attack: "Forget them and jump into a hole."

Dr. Gerstell, state civil defense director, is convinced that Americans will get less than 30 minutes advance notice of any enemy nuclear air or sea attack.

And the CD director has the U.S. government now backing his contention.

"For the last 18 months the federal government said Americans could expect anywhere from one minute to three hours advance notice of an enemy air attack," he recalled, adding:

"Just recently the Office of Defense and Civilian Mobilization made it known that it had cut the warning time down to from zero to 30 minutes."

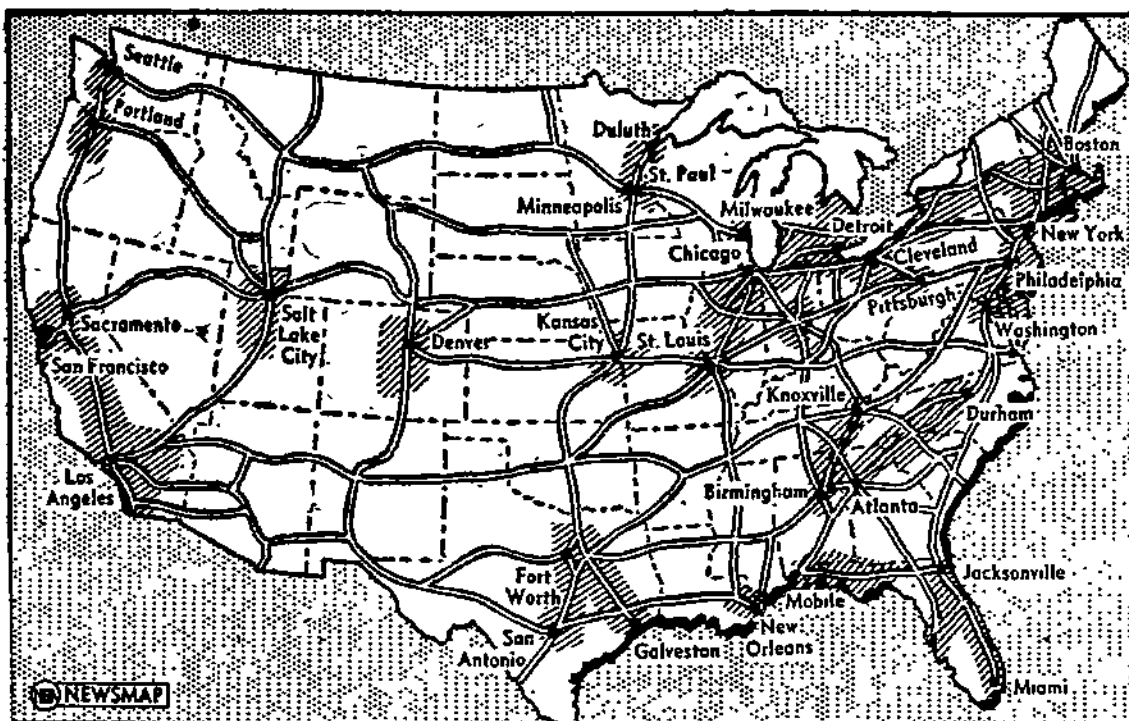

"Now that the inter-continental missiles are day-by-day getting faster and more accurate, the time of warning is being gradually cut down," he explained.

"We have very good and elaborate plans for area evacuation after it has been bombed. But post-bombing and pre-bombing evacuations are two very different things."

"If you only get a few minutes warning of a bombing, what good would it do to start people out on the road from a city where they couldn't take any cover and just cause a lot of confusion?"

"The only answer now that we have such an almost instantaneous possibility of being struck is to have the people take cover as soon as any warning is sounded and stay there until it is safe to try evacuation."

INTERURBIA OF 1980—America's population is growing rapidly, autos are giving it increasing mobility, aided by the new interstate highway network. This combination has led to predictions of a new kind of United States within the next generation — a land of great "strip" cities stretching along the highway arteries. Newsmap above, based on data from Business Horizons magazine, shows how the face of this changed America may look. Already a 600-mile-long interurbia stretches from Maine to Virginia. To the west, an even more tremendous series of connecting strip cities is shaping up. These would connect the Middle West and the Great Lakes with the eastern seaboard.

That's all I want. I turned down all the requests for luncheons and dinners to celebrate with."

It's not that he's against birthdays he said. The main thing is that he's too busy producing a picture to take time out for celebrations.

How does he maintain such an active life at an age when most men are retired? He answered by telling his daily regimen, interspersed with his own philosophy.

He rises in his Beverly Hills mansion at 6, reads the morning papers and takes the coffee which is his only breakfast — "Most people eat too much; I get along with very little food." He spends half an hour on the floor doing exercises, then gets a half-hour rub-down.

He is at his office at 9:30 and runs through his appointments briskly — "I never keep anyone waiting; I figure their time is worth more than mine." He has lunch at 12:30, usually fruit and cottage cheese. Then he takes an hour's rest.

"I don't always sleep," he explained. "The important thing is to have some time when you are alone. A man needs to commune with himself. That's why I take long walks alone when I am not making a picture."

He leaves the studio at least by 7 — "To keep your servants happy, you've got to maintain regular hours." After a light dinner, he reads the New York Times, Herald-Tribune and Post, possibly a book, retires by 11 or 12. Twice a week, he runs a picture — "I

On weekends, he spends six to eight hours a day on the croquet court, which has become a mania with him.

"I never take pills," he said. "I've never taken a vitamin pill in my life. I only see a doctor about twice a year, and he tells me I have the strongest heart in Hollywood. He says that morning exercise is the best thing in the world for me; he wishes he could do it."

There can be little doubt about what makes Sam run. It is the pursuit of a love that began 45 years ago — the making of motion pictures.

SURVIVING THE LONG WEEKEND

If you're going to be driving over the long Labor Day weekend coming up, how good a driver you are in a highway emergency may determine your chances for survival warns James F. Malone, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association as he joins other leaders of safety in a plea for a safe holiday weekend.

Malone urges defensive driving as the real solution to reducing highway accidents, explaining the defensive driver is one who drives in such a manner as to avoid accidents by anticipating and allowing for the hazards created by the unsafe acts of others and adverse traffic and weather conditions.

"The defensive driver realizes that in addition to turning in a top notch driving job himself, he also has a responsibility to make up for the shortcomings of others," Malone says. He points out that such an attitude comes naturally to persons accustomed to accepting their moral responsibilities in other departments of daily living.

Malone, speaking for the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association who are cooperating with the National Safety Council and local safety groups to promote safety on the highway and in the home, as well as on the job, concludes his plea with these tips "Everybody on the road has a certain amount of moral responsibility for the safety of everyone he meets, so drive defensively; keep alert, think ahead, be adaptable, pace yourself by the traffic around you, use common sense, and be courteous."

RUSSIAN TOURISTS

For the first time since the establishment of the Soviet Union, a group classified merely as "tourists" (rather than an official delegation) has entered the US for two weeks of sight-seeing and picture-taking around the nation—New York, Washington, Chicago and Niagara Falls. Before the 3 men and one lady architect leave, another group of 17 will arrive. And, if you are interested in statistics, the 13 include eight engineers, one (male) architect.

It may also be appropriate to note that under Communism there are no "private" citizens. All belong to the state.

HELP THEIR EDUCATION

The arrival of September brings one of the two times in the year when there is a major change in the traffic pattern on the streets. It occurs when the children start going back to school. The other part of the cycle is when the schools are dismissed for the summer. During the fall and winter there will be more children on the streets earlier in the day. Intersections must be watched carefully and the speed limit signs in school zones mean what they say. So let's demonstrate good citizenship to the younger generation by driving carefully and lawfully.

Marlow Looks At TODAY'S NEWS

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—One of the penalties this country pays for non-recognition of the Red Chinese—which means we have no representative in China to talk with them—is that we don't know what they're up to. We guess.

And there's been no end of guessing these past few days on why the Chinese Communists on mainland China are blasting away at Chang Kai-shek's Nationalists on the offshore islands, like Quemoy.

Since one guess looks as good as another, here are two:
1 The Reds may wind up just trying to grab a couple of tiny, insignificant islets to boost their prestige a bit.

2 They may also be doing this to help the Soviets put pressure on the United States to get its troops out of Lebanon.

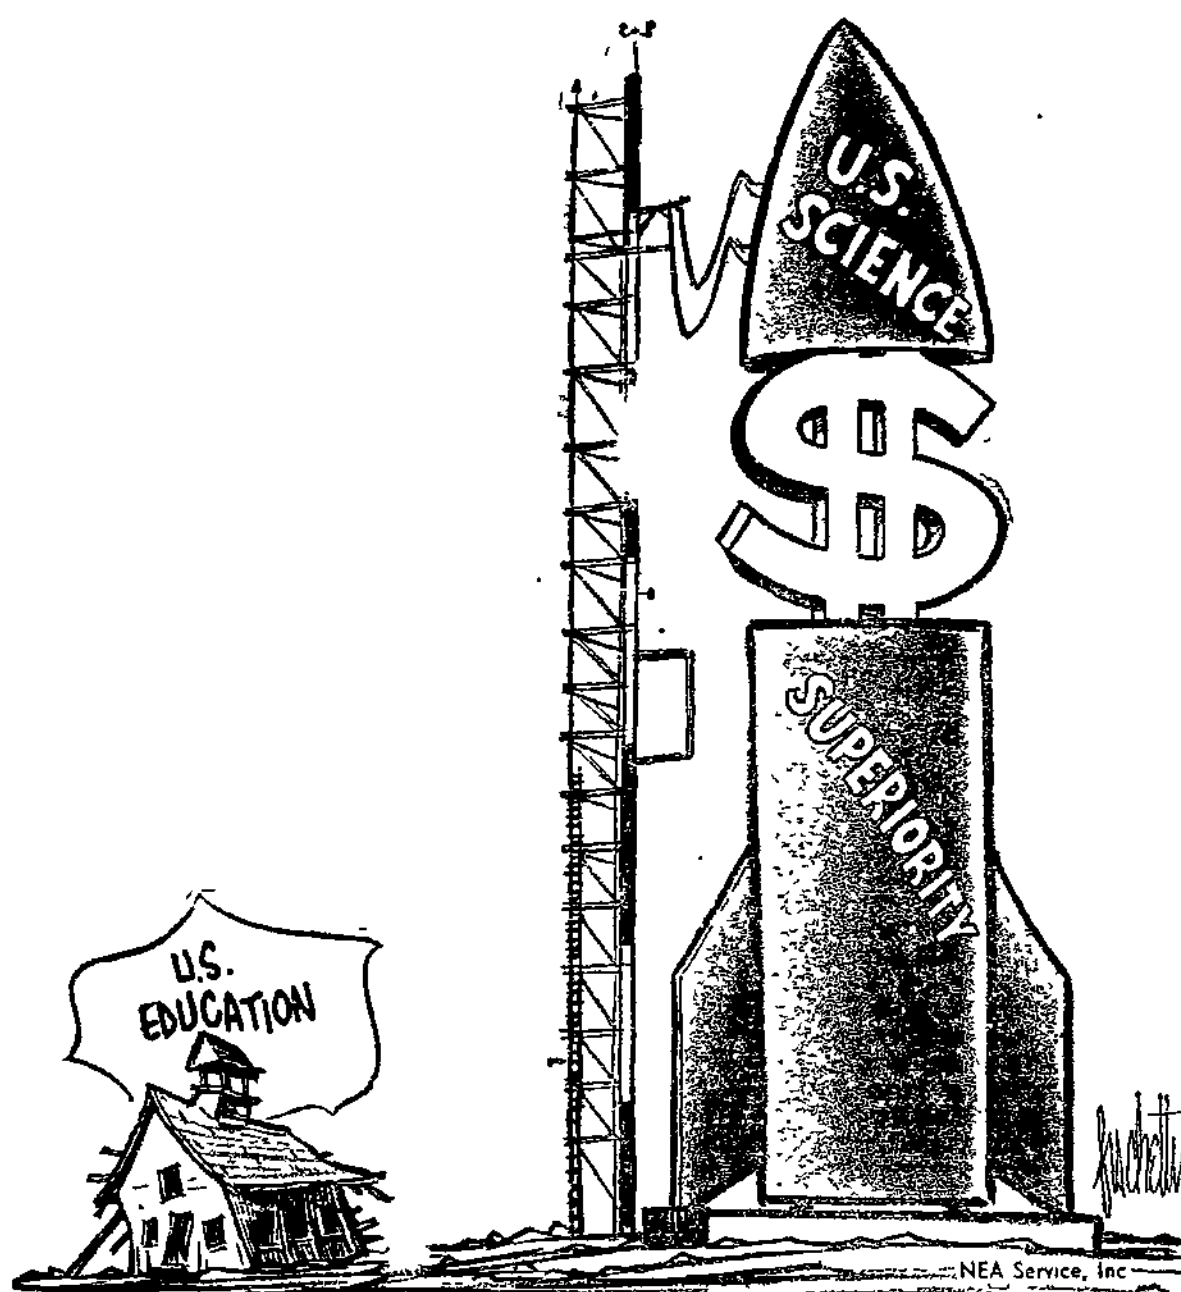

The Chinese Communists didn't start the fireworks against the offshore islands—Chang's main force is on Formosa—until after Soviet Premier Khrushchev visited Peking a few weeks ago.

The United States is now sufficiently concerned about the Red Chinese tactics to put the 7th Fleet on the alert around the Formosa Strait.

So long as American troops remain in Lebanon, there could be an explosion. So long as there is shooting near Formosa, the United States might get mixed up there.

The last thing this country wants is to have to fight in two

Money Alone Isn't Going To Get That Thing Launched

Here and There

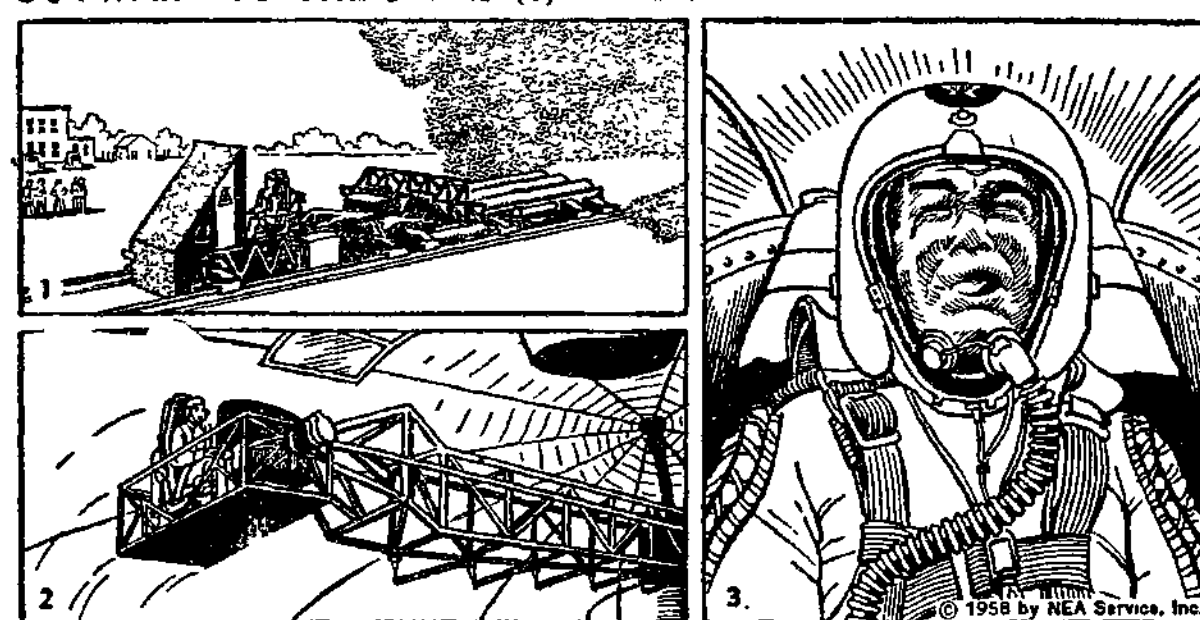

A report on the progress of construction of the Warren State Hospital eighty years ago is printed in the August 23rd, 1878, issue of The Warren Ledger, under the heading "The Hospital for the Insane".

Portions of the column and a half story make interesting reading matter today. The writer notes that the tour was made under the auspices of John Sunderland, Esq., superintendent. Among other things the article says: "Since our former visit the walls of the central or main part are being pushed rapidly to completion, and hopes are entertained by Mr. Sunderland of having the whole structure under roof before inclement weather sets in. The third story walls to the main building are now being constructed. The massive columns to adorn the front entrance are being fashioned by our own townsmen, Robert Bell, from native stone. They are 20 inches in diameter, eleven feet in length without blemish, and are susceptible of the finest finish. There are spacious halls the entire length of each story, with transverse ones as convenience requires. All of the beams to sustain floor are of iron arched between with brick. But little wood is used as building material, except the floors, which are to be of Georgia pine, and the doors and window casings, which are of native chestnut, oil finished. The stairways are of Lehigh slate stone, and the entire structure will be covered with slate roofing, and is as fire proof as modern ingenuity can devise. Of the permanency and stability of the work it is scarcely necessary to say that if anything of human construction can successfully defy the wear of time, this massive pile of concrete, brick and stone will not be the exception. . . . The brick for this building are made upon the Hospital grounds, and in close proximity to the structure. The road leading to the yard is made for durability and service. The soil was removed to a certain depth, the space filled with flat stones, set edgewise, and covered with gravel, so that in wet as well as dry weather teams haul heavy loads over a hard road bed. In the purchase of the farm it was not known there was upon it clay from which to make the brick, nor was it known that suitable stone for the building lay in such abundance at so slight a distance, nor that the ground would furnish sand for the mortar. Mr. Sunderland has searched out these things, and by so doing, has saved the state many thousands of dollars. . . . It will require 15,000,000 brick to go into this building, and, a daily turning out of 30,000, and this number must be hauled daily and the same number daily are laid in the walls. Don't you see it requires a large thought, expanded plans to bring about all these conditions. There are about four acres of ground devoted to the making of brick—two for clay and two for drying, piling and the kilns in which last there are three, and all working up to capacity during the season. To begin with there are four pits, tempering pits they call them, into which the clay is placed. These pits are 22 inches in depth and circular. The floor is of plank. Into these pits the clay is thrown at night and water thrown over it and it remains during the night when the clay becomes soft. In the morning a team of horses is hitched to a lever which works the tempering wheel that works in and out as it passes around the circle, and thoroughly mixes the clay and water to the desired consistency. This requires eight hours of work with the team, and the batch is done. There is sufficient clay in each pit to make 15,000 brick. Two of these pits full are ground each day, a span of horses to each. It is heavy pulling and it requires a heavy team to do the work, but Mr. Sunderland has them, large, bony, hearty fellows—the best drawing horses in the country, and but few ever see them. The kilns are as nearly perfect as they can be made and in the perfection of these is the science of making perfect brick. To a kiln, one car load of hard coal, and from three and a half to four of soft coal, and two and a half cords of wood are required. The kilns are not of equal capacity. They vary from 216,000 to 265,000 each, the larger kiln being the more profitable. Then they have teams for drawing the brick to the buildings over the road spoken of earlier. Each team draws nineteen loads a day, for a day's work and by this method it is known almost to a fraction, how many are laid each day by the bricklayers. By the bricks being made by the state, it is calculated that a saving on them over the contract way, will be at least $30,000; but the great consideration is to have them on hand when needed—no delay."

From the Society for the Propagation of the Lark, P. O. Box 51, South Bend 24, Indiana, we receive the following self-explanatory article:
"To the Editor: The Society for the Propagation of the Lark has recently been organized by a group of bird and nature lovers in South Bend, Indiana. Our first goal is to take a census survey of this unusual bird, preliminary to further planning which aims to preserve and propagate all species of this remarkable songster. To accomplish this, we would like to enlist the aid of bird lovers throughout the nation. Anyone who is interested, be they young or old, Boy Scout or Girl Scout, can help us by sending a post card or letter to our headquarters with any pertinent information, such as what kinds of larks do we have in the various states? Are they increasing or decreasing in numbers? And what can be done to preserve and propagate them? Joseph Barnes, Secretary, The Society for the Propagation of the Lark, Post Office Box 51, South Bend 24, Indiana."

OUTWARD TO THE STARS (8)—Problems

(1) First effect a rocket-borne spaceman will feel is acceleration. Air Force Col. John Stapp, in his daring rides on a rocket sled at Holloman AFB in New Mexico, has proved that man can survive speedups and slowdowns as high as 12 G's (12 times the force of gravity) without harm. This is far in excess of what a space pilot would have to withstand.

(2) Other experiments on human beings have been carried out in giant whirling centrifuges like this one. A reclining position has been found to be best for high and prolonged acceleration.

(3) Under full rocket blast, pilot of a space vehicle will be pinned down into his specially-designed seat. G forces will distort his features and render him almost helpless. During the period of acceleration, automatic instruments will control the rocket until power is cut off and the pilot is able to take over.

(4) The opposite extreme from acceleration is the phenomenon of weightlessness, which will be experienced continually by the pilot of a satellite in orbit around the Earth.

Very short periods of weightlessness have been achieved in an airplane—by diving steeply, then abruptly pulling out and cutting power. In the

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—They're making up the teams in the office or factory bowling leagues today for the fall season. And the industry which serves them thinks the new season will top the last when 20 million Americans spent 250 million dollars on the game.

The recession has hurt the sport in only a few cities. And industry spokesmen say that what customers they may have lost due to unemployment they have more than replaced by new ones—especially the women—and by longer hours of the use of their facilities and by a major move to the suburbs.

A report by Business Research Corp. predicts nearly 22 million will bowl during the coming season, compared with 12½ million in 1946.

Counting in what they will pay for fees and equipment and the over-all investment of the nation's bowling center proprietors, B. E. Bensinger, president of Brunswick Balke-Collender, bowling equipment maker, says the game will reach the one-billion-mark this season for the first time.

The Women's International Bowling Congress estimates that six million women bowl, many of them in leagues of their own playing the afternoons.

While traditionally the season opens with Labor Day, this summer more bowling arenas than usual stayed open. They report business good, thanks to air-conditioning, increased playing by families as a group, especially in the suburbs, and to a campaign to get bowlers to think of the game as a year-round sport.

Makers of automatic machines that have replaced the pin boys in many arenas report good backlogs of orders.

Brunswick says it has a backlog of about 8,000 for its pinsetters at $8,100 each.

Some of the new arenas are plush indeed. In addition to the bowling alley—which the industry wishes you'd call lanes—they have restaurants, bars and nurseries. One establishment in Buffalo, N. Y., offers a $2 package for women playing in the daytime, which includes babysitters in a nursery, two hours of bowling with free instruction, and a hot lunch for the mother and children.

Boyle's Comment

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—What this world needs most today is a little more flattery, a revival of the good old art of apple sauce.

A great deal of ridicule has been directed at the "yes man," but he fills a great need in society. We might do well with a few more of them.

Colleges now teach everything from bridge playing to how to cook an omelette. Why don't they have a course on the technique and use of flattery?

There is a saying that "flattery will get you nowhere." That saying is out-of-date and inaccurate. The truth is that the pendulum has swung the other way. If flattery won't get it for you, nothing will.

Flattery is the banana oil that greases the wheels of progress.

It never was more needed than right now. Mankind today is homesick for applause, and crying for a pat on the back.

We live in a century which, for one reason or another, goes in for too much self-hate. Practically everyone is afflicted with a sense of guilt—from panhandler to millionaire—and has a secret feeling he's a bum.

Time was when most people knew their own motives were pure but suspected the motives of others. They liked to think of themselves as being just a bit better than their neighbors—more honest, more sincere, more charitable, more moved by tolerance and good will.

No longer. Everybody seems to suspect himself first of all now. He needs no accusers. He not only casts the first stone—he casts it at himself. If he does a good deed, he asks himself cynically just what dark reason is really behind it.

The new psychology has turned us from self-applause to self-criticism. This wouldn't be bad in itself, if we didn't go overboard.

It is not expected that weightlessness will be harmful to human beings, nor involve more than a temporary discomfort until the new situation is adjusted to.

Senator Chapman Highly Lauded by Allentown Writer

The following flattering tribute to State Senator L. E. Chapman, this city, is reprinted from "The Harrisburger" column in The Morning Call, Allentown:

THE AGING: In 1930 Dr. Leroy E. Chapman was elected to the Pennsylvania State Senate to represent Venango and his native Warren County. He had already been a practicing physician for 24 years.

This year he is rounding out his seventh term, or 28 years as a member of the upper chamber. He is the Republican nominee for an eighth term.

He has been chairman of the highly important Senate Appropriations Committee since 1941. He has continued his practice in the best tradition.

He has been and continues to be a leader in the fight against cancer. The Pennsylvania Medical Society has recognized his many contributions in the field of medicine by awarding him its Distinguished Service Medal. Eight universities and colleges have recognized his attainments with honorary degrees.

It is not easy for the opposition to hang itself on a campaign issue. Perhaps Sen. Chapman anticipated his maturity as something of which the opposition might try to make an issue.

The aging have been a matter of concern for some time. Some years ago he wrote a treatise, "The Challenge of the Aging," which was printed in medical journals.

It holds the answer to most any questions the senator's political opponents may pose. It is a convincing manuscript and is receiving wide distribution in his senatorial district.

Friends of Dr. Chapman, who have known him through the years and who are familiar with his record—legislatively and professionally—are confident he will retain his old seat right in front of the presiding officer's rostrum when the 1959 session convenes.

Recession Over in Furniture Industry

CHICAGO, Ill.—Clear evidence that the recession has ended in the furniture industry and an upward trend is underway is revealed by NAFM's monthly statistical report for July (attached) released today.

The association analysis shows that for the fifth consecutive month, manufacturer's orders are up. For July, orders came to within one percent of equaling July a year ago. A most encouraging sign, NAFM says, is that in July unfilled orders reached their best level of the year.

The NAFM states that the furniture industry can anticipate improved orders to be reflected in improved shipments in the months immediately ahead. In July, the report shows, shipments improved for all segments of the industry except upholstered.

G.M. Directors Name New Chief Officers

DETROIT (AP)—A finance expert and an authority on production and engineering have been named to direct the destinies of the world's biggest industrial corporation.

General Motors directors Monday elected Frederic G. Donner, 56, board chairman and chief executive officer, and John F. Gordon, 53, as president and chief operating officer.

Their election, effective Sept. 1, followed the retirement of Board Chairman Albert Bradley and President Harlow H. Curtis, both of whom have passed GM's normal retirement age of 65. In effect, Curtis's job as president and chief executive officer is being divided between Donner and Gordon.

New Ultra High Strength Alloy Steel Developed

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Missiles and rockets may soon be made from a new ultra-high strength alloy steel developed by U. S. Steel Corp.

The company disclosed Monday it has developed "airsteel," an air-hardening missile material at its research center in Monroeville near Pittsburgh.

When cooled in air and tempered, the new steel develops tensile strength levels in the 280,000 pounds per square inch range. Most alloy steels require an elaborate oil or salt quenching to develop equivalent mechanical properties. The firm claims the new steel's tensile strength is six times greater than that of sheet steel used in automobile bodies and fenders. The "airsteel" is available in billets, blooms, bars, plates and sheets, according to U. S. Steel. BUY U. S. SAVINGS BONDS

Have Church Wedding

Marelyn F. Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Scott of Pittsfield, became the bride of Carlton A. Smith, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton A. Smith, Sr., of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., on August 16 in St. Luke's Catholic church in Youngsville.

Father Charles Hurley performed the double ring ceremony at 10:00 a. m., white and yellow glads used for the altar setting. Joan Mulvey, Youngsville, was at the organ.

Given in marriage by her brother, James Scott, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white lace, with fingertip veil, and carried a prayer book topped with yellow roses.

As matron of honor, Mrs. Lynn Scott of Pittsfield wore blue taffeta, with corsage of white gladiolus; gowned in pink silk and having like corsages, bridesmaids were Lorraine Scott of Pittsfield and Sandie Sandburg, Youngsville.

Mr. Smith served his son as best man; ushering were John Saylor, Gerry, N. Y., and Eugene Aaneurd, Minneapolis, Minn.

The bride's mother chose a dark blue frock and white accessories.

A lawn reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Scott, with approximately 50 attending. Out of town guests included: Mrs. John Sockwell, Joanne Sockwell, North Canton, O.; Mrs. James Ackley, Margaret Ackley, Ridgway; Mrs. Charles Johnson, Brookville; Mrs. Eunice Canfield, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hayden, East Aurora, N. Y.

For a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the bride chose a white sheath with red accessories. The newlyweds will make their home in Warren.

The bride, graduate of Youngsville High School, is employed by Warren National Bank. The bridegroom graduated from St. Peter's Academy, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and is employed by Americana Corporation.

A pre-nuptial party for the bride was given by the girls of Warren National Bank at Penn-Laurel Motel.

DRIVE CAREFULLY!

Vice President Uses Influence In New York Fight

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon apparently has dropped a 1960 presidential anchor to windward in the troubled sea of New York politics. Nixon's activity in urging Republican Rep. Kenneth B. Keating of Rochester into the race for the Senate was interpreted here as an effort directed in part at keeping the vice president's presidential aspirations afloat in a critical area.

Keating had been reluctant to gamble an almost sure House seat by entering the contest for the post being vacated by GOP Sen. Irving Ives. But he agreed to make the Senate race after Nixon called him and said both Nixon and President Eisenhower thought he would be a fine nominee.

Shortly afterward, Keating was nominated by the Republican state convention meeting in Rochester.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, told reporters Nixon had informed him of receiving a telephone call from Nelson Rockefeller, GOP nominee for New York governor, saying that Rockefeller and others were strongly urging Keating to run for the Senate.

Hagerty said Nixon talked personally to Eisenhower and then relayed to Keating the word that "both the President and himself thought that Mr. Keating would be a fine candidate, and the vice president urged Mr. Keating not to decline the nomination should the opportunity be presented by the Republican State Convention."

This indirectly breached Eisenhower's self-imposed rule against intervening in the choice of party nominees.

But it provided Nixon with a friendly political associate on a ticket headed by a GOP governor candidate who might become Nixon's chief rival for the party's next presidential nomination.

If Rockefeller can defeat Democratic Gov. Averell Harriman in November, the grandson of John D. Rockefeller of dime-giving fame is certain to be acclaimed as a "new face" contender for the 1960 prize.

State Financed Korea War Bonus Creates Interest

HARRISBURG (AP) — Interest in receiving the state-financed Korean War bonus is picking up sharply.

Col. William B. Freeland, deputy adjutant general, said today nearly 2,500 inquiries have come in from Pennsylvania veterans of the Korean War interested in a bonus of up to $500.

"We have to tell them that the letters will be kept on file until the next Legislature acts finally on the bonus," he told a newsman. "But the volume of letters indicates a tremendous interest."

Voters last year approved a 150 million dollar bond issue to finance the bonus. The 1959 Legislature must enact a revenue-raising measure to pay off the bonds before actual bonus payments can begin to flow.

Freeland estimated there were about 335,000 veterans from this state in the Korean War. Other sources say the figure is fewer and that only about 90 million dollars would be needed to finance the payments.

Under the plan, Korean War veterans who served between June 27, 1950 and July 27, 1953 would get $10 for each month of domestic service and $15 a month for service in the Korean theater. The maximum payment is $500.

Freeland said no specific arrangements are under way to handle the bonus-paying machinery pending action by the next Legislature. An appropriation for this has not been cleared finally.

Most of the inquiries ask for applications but Freeland has replied to them:

"There is no administrative organization to handle Korean bonus correspondence and there are no applications available."

Bumper Peach Crop Reported in Five Counties

HARRISBURG (AP) — Bumper crops of peaches in at least five Pennsylvania counties are expected to give the state a plentiful supply of the fruit this week and next.

The State Agriculture Department's crop reporting service said bumper peach crops are ready for harvest in Adams, Franklin, York, Berks and Lehigh counties.

The report, for the week ended Monday, said roadside stands and other retail outlets should have plentiful supplies.

The report continued: "Harvest in the Erie area is expected to peak about September 10."

"The Pennsylvania peach harvest this year is about seven to 10 days behind normal picking dates."

"During the week some loss in peach orchards was experienced due to brown rot. Apples are attaining good size in all areas."

"Harvest of wheat and oats continues in the northern tier counties. New seedlings of hay are causing some interference with combining in some areas. Corn is sizing and prospects are excellent."

"Hay harvest continues throughout most of the state. Third cuttings have started in the southern counties and second cuttings are being harvested in the north. There are isolated reports of alfalfa weevil damage."

"Tobacco harvest in the Lancaster area continues with quality generally good. Tomatoes, sweet corn, potatoes and snap beans are moving to market in volume."

Picture of Grave Peril to U. S. Revealed in Report

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of experts warned today that by the early 1960s missile-firing Soviet submarines will be capable of devastating American cities.

"A massive attack with such weapons could level our entire urban society," said the Undersea Warfare Panel. The group was formed to advise the Military subcommittee of the House-Senate Atomic Energy Committee.

In its 16-page report, the panel painted a picture of grave peril ahead for the United States unless this nation's own submarine and antisubmarine programs are pushed with more vigor and on a much larger scale.

"In a future war," the report said, "the ocean could be our enemy as never before."

Therefore, said the panel, it was making these recommendations for meeting the danger:

1. The Navy should proceed with all speed with construction of submarines capable of firing the 1,500-mile Polaris ballistic missile. Present plans call for the first of these submarines to be available in 1960.

2. The Polaris submarine program should be kept separate from the Navy's regular ship budget. Polaris money requests should be determined by the secretary of defense and the National Security increase in the Navy's budget for basic research.

5. Greater use should be made of universities, private research centers and industry for grappling with undersea warfare problems.

Sylvania Salaried And Non-Union Employees Get a Two-Year Wage Raise Schedule

Sylvania Electric Products Inc. announced today a two-year schedule of pay increases for all hourly employees not represented by unions and for all salaried employees. The company also announced a number of upward revisions in its employee benefits program.

The same hourly wage increase schedule and improved benefits also have been offered to unions representing the other hourly employees of the Company, it was announced by M. W. Kremer, divisional operating vice president.

The first phase of the new wage schedule provides increases ranging from 5 to 11c per hour, effective September 1, 1958, for hourly production workers, and an additional 3 to 11c per hour effective August 31, 1959.

Salary employees will receive corresponding increases in base salary effective September 1, 1958, and August 31, 1959.

In addition, the Company announced it is continuing its Cost of Living formula for both hourly and salary employees through August 31, 1960. The Cost of Living plan has been in effect since 1955.

The revised employee benefits program provides a third week of vacation, starting in 1959, for employees with ten or more years of service with the Company, and improvements in the Company paid group medical, surgical and hospital insurance program. It also provides expanded life insurance coverage for employees upon retirement, and extends hospital, surgical and medical benefits to employees upon normal retirement.

In the case of unions accepting the new wage and benefits program within a specified period after the September 1st effective date, the increase will be retroactive to that date.

Local Lodge No. 993 of the International Association of Machinists—A. F. of L., which represents the Warren bargaining unit employees, and the Company will begin negotiations in the near future on the Company's offer and other contractual changes.

Sylvania has approximately 25,000 employees in 44 plants and 21 laboratories in 13 states.

Five Cub Scouts Receive Indian Names at Rites

The following interesting article describing the annual Cornplanter Day Festival held recently at the reservation has been submitted by the reporter for Cub Pack 2, Den 7, Jefferson School:

About 250 persons, including heirs of Chief Cornplanter and their guests, attended the annual Cornplanter Day Festival held August 2nd at the Cornplanter Reservation in Pennsylvania.

Entertainment included swimming, games, horseback riding and a softball game between the Seneca Stars of Indian Hill, Cattaraugus Reservation, and the Cornplanter Mixers. The Seneca Stars won, 6-4.

A short memorial service was held for Chief Cornplanter and for five Cornplanter heirs who died during the past year.

Speakers were Merle Dearborn, president of Warren Savings & Trust Co.; Charles Pierce of Buffalo, a direct descendant of Chief Cornplanter, and Cornelius V. Seneca, president of the Seneca Nation. Mr. Seneca reported on recent developments in connection with the Kinzua Dam.

Five cub scouts from Warren, and a boy scout from Elizabeth, who were initiated last year into the bear clan, received their Indian names and repeated the "honor pledge." Mrs. Harriett Lee Pierce of Onondaga was chosen to be their adopted mother. Dick J. John of Salamanca, dressed in Indian costume, danced the initiation dance, and Leslie Bowen of Quaker Bridge sang and played the drum for the ceremony.

Warren boys and their Indian names were, Curtis Brew, Da-Gah-Wen-No-Duh-Jeh; Mark Goodwin, Gy-Ant-Twa-Gae; David Johnson, Ha-Sen-No-Wah-Neh; Jay Pees, Ha-Ya-No-Weh and Philip Smith, Ho-Dat-Swee-Yo. Douglas Glass who was not present will be given his name at a later date. Also receiving an Indian name was Joseph Booth of Elizabeth. The next Cornplanter Day will be held on the first Saturday of August in 1959.

Veterans News

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—As a veteran, may I get a GI loan to go into business with a friend who is not a veteran?

A—Yes, you may join with a nonveteran in obtaining a loan. However, the amount of the loan on which VA guaranty or insurance can be based will be in proportion to your interest in the loan. Guaranty or insurance cannot extend to any part of the loan which represents the nonveteran's contribution to the business.

Q—I'm about to start on-the-job training under the Korean GI Bill. How many hours a week are considered to be full-time training?

A—Full-time training is considered to be the standard work-week of the firm where you are taking your training. However, it generally may not be less than 36 hours a week.

Q—I am eligible for training under the War Orphans Education program. Can I use my right under the program to take a correspondence school course in cartooning?

A—No. The law does not permit you to receive benefits for correspondence school training. Also prohibited, under the War Orphans Education program, are courses in dancing, personality development, and bartending; on-the-job and on-the-farm training; training given by radio or television; and training in foreign countries.

Q—Who receives the monthly VA allowance under the War Orphans Education program—the student or his parent?

A—If the student is under 21, his living parents or guardian will receive the allowance. If he is 21 or over, the allowance will be paid directly to him.

Says "Sweeper" Satellites Could Clear Radioactivity

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer
AMSTERDAM, Netherlands (AP)—"Sweeper" satellites could houseclean away the dangerous band of radioactivity high above the earth, a space scientist suggested today.

This radiation is the mystery halo discovered by Explorer satellites and Sputniks. It apparently could be deadly to humans.

But the sweepers could clear a channel so humans could safely zoom off on space trips, Dr. S. Fred Singer of the University of Maryland told the International Astronautical Federation, meeting here this week.

Or space ships might escape it by taking off over the poles, where there are apparently natural holes in the belt, he continued. As another idea, space ships might be equipped with magnetic screens to fend off the radiation. All these schemes would avoid tremendously heavy lead shielding.

The radiation band, he continued, probably stretches 40,000 miles above the earth before it dwindles away.

The radiation band might even extend all the way to the moon, Dr. Fred Whipple Smithsonian Institution astronomer, told a reporter.

Singer said the radiation appears thinner at higher latitudes and nonexistent at the poles. He theorizes it is made of protons—positively charged atomic particles—trapped in the earth's magnetic field.

The space sweepers could be satellites, about 30 feet in diameter, circling the earth above the equator, and soaking up the protons faster than they are being formed.

RADIO and TV

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Video tape, the system that enables moving pictures to be recorded and instantly played back without the use of film, is improving television news coverage.

Looking ahead to the 1960 presidential conventions one can see son spent Tuesday in Angola, N. Y., helping their grandson, Dane Carberg, celebrate his birthday. Mrs. Paul Carberg and children returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Gruber, Lander, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gruber and family, Warren, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gruber.

Robert Williams, Crosssett, Ark., has been spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Jen Williams, and his grandmother, Mrs. Kit Frank.

Mrs. Scott Stuart, Sr., entertained at luncheon honoring the birthdays of Mrs. Frank Dorn and her guest, Margaret Smith of Bradford, Mrs. F. A. Schoonover providing the birthday cake.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Dort, Allegany, have been spending a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Emory Hale, and family.

James M. Fisher, New York City, is the guest of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. James M. Fisher.

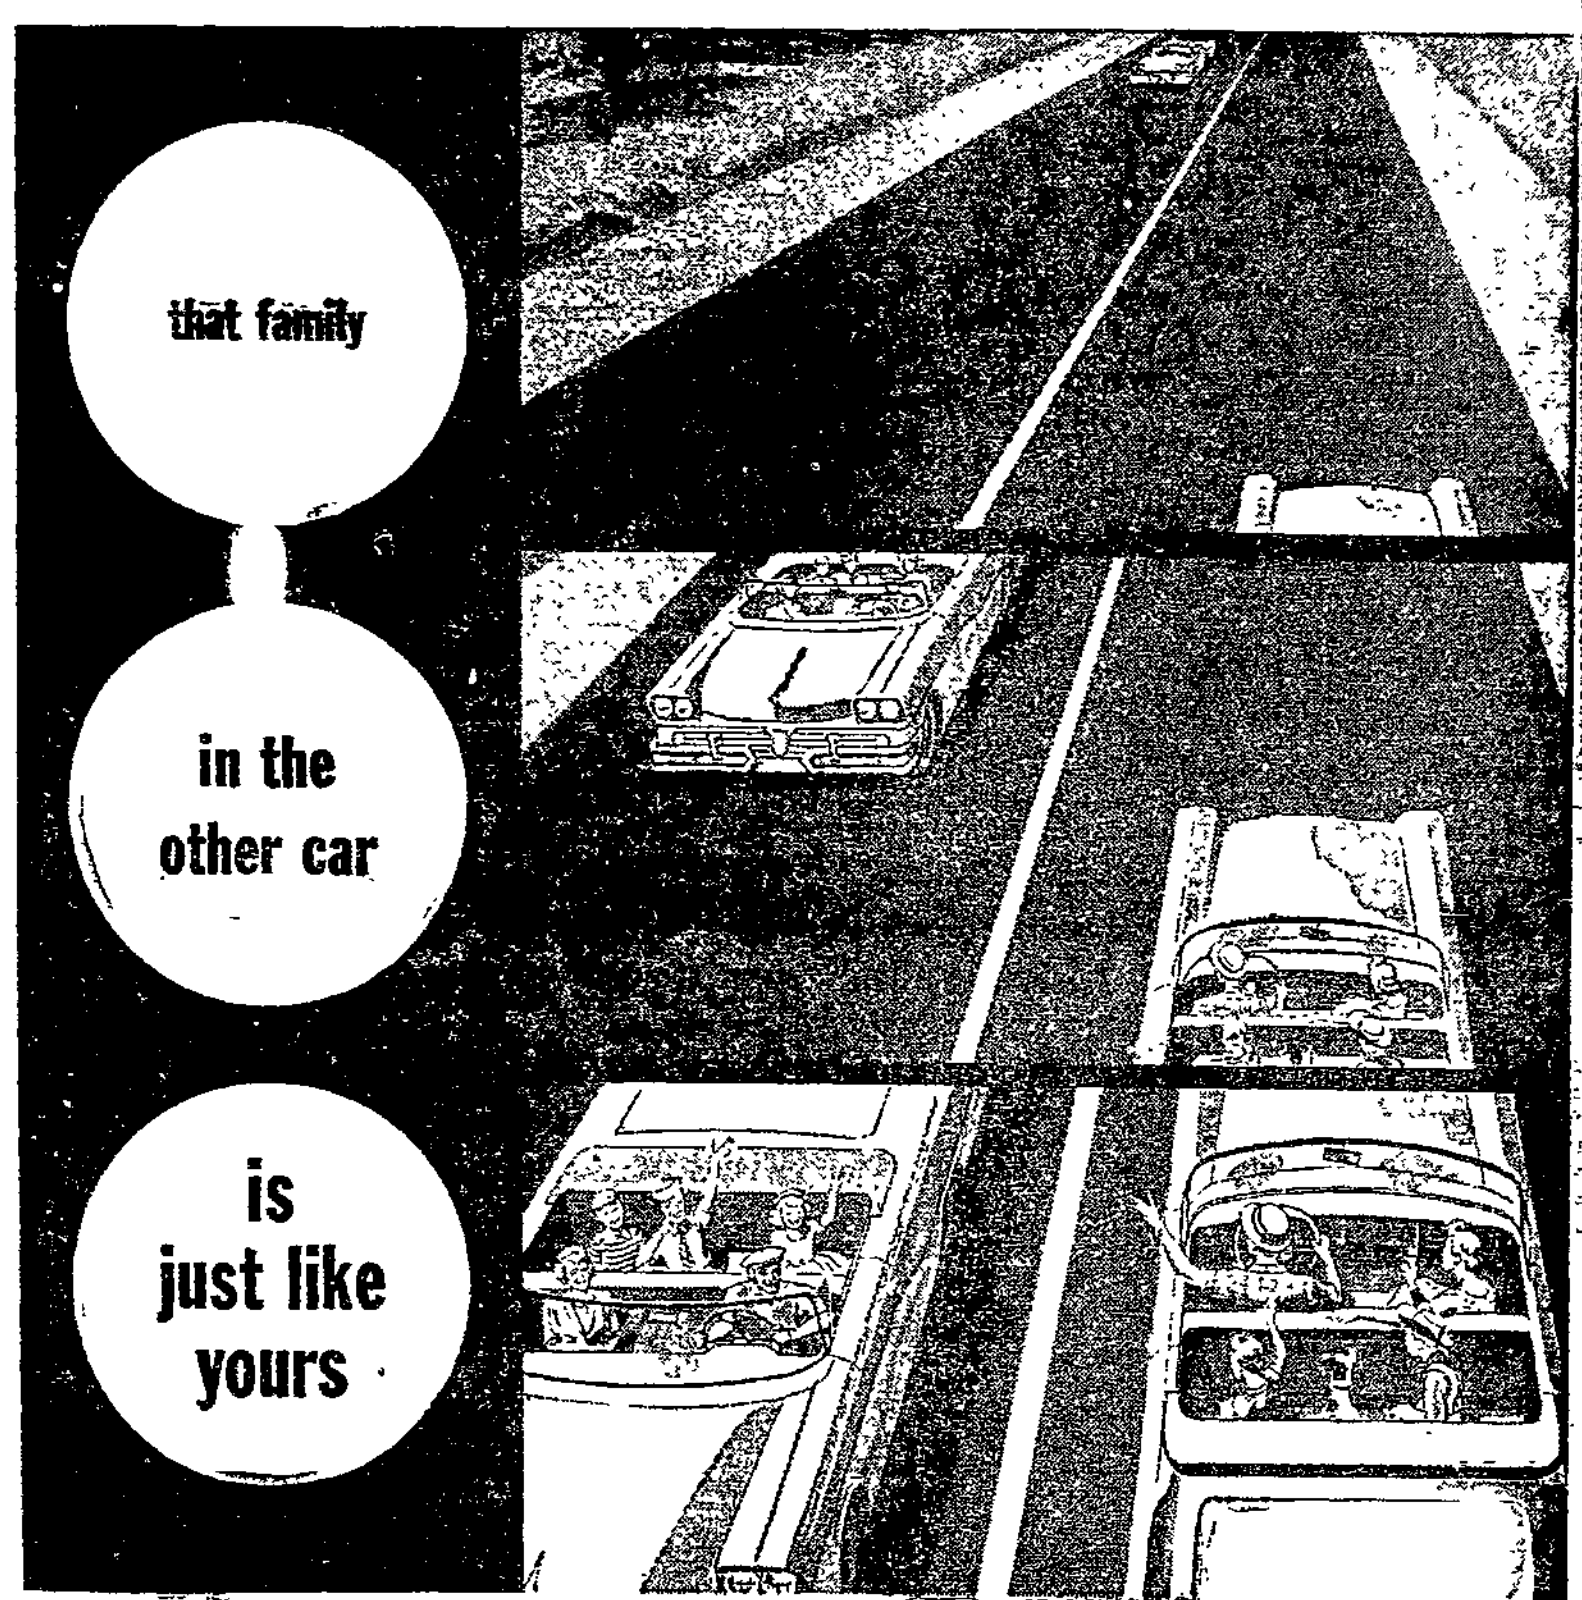

that tape might help solve some of the problems involved in TV coverage of the 1952 and 1956 conventions. Even the most ardent members of both major parties agreed that keeping TV cameras on both conventions continuously in '56 resulted in some mighty dull viewing.

Sig Mickelson, general manager of CBS News, said: "I'd prefer to edit the conventions and use video tape for the less vital parts of the proceedings in 1960. We would, of course, go live for balloting and other highlights. You never can overlook the importance, the sense of actuality, in live coverage of events as they happen."

NBC News first used video tape in presenting President Eisenhower's inaugural address in 1957. More recently CBS News used tape in covering the United Nations sessions at the height of the Middle East crisis last month.

One example was the day President Eisenhower addressed the General Assembly. The President's speech was carried live and also taped; the speech by Andrei Gromyko, the Soviet representative, was taped only. At 7:30 p. m. that evening CBS-TV presented a special half-hour program of the highlights of both speeches with interpretive interpolations by network commentators.

Although tape has the advantage of a better image than film and does not require its lengthy processing, tape still cannot be spliced. Thus breaks made in the continuity of a taped program must be bridged by live camera shots. It is expected that it will be technically possible to splice tape within two years. Although it's much too early to determine exactly how television will cover the 1960 conventions, Mickelson pointed out the networks established a pattern of saturation coverage in 1952 that it may be difficult to break. In that year, because of the number of single station markets and single cable lines which had to be shared, the networks compromised by all covering the entire proceedings. Video tape, as CBS News used it in recent U. N. coverage, would appear to be the means of eliminating much tediousness in TV's coverage of the 1960 conventions.

Hogan and Keating To Battle For New York's Senate Seat

By The Associated Press
Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan, Manhattan Democrat, and Rep. Kenneth B. Keating, Rochester Republican, will battle this fall for Republican Irving M. Ives' New York seat in the U. S. Senate.

New York City Democratic leaders engineered Hogan's nomination at a state convention early today over the determined opposition of Gov. Averell Harriman. Hogan trounced two other candidates easily on the first ballot.

The Democrats acted at Buffalo about eight hours after Republicans at Rochester—with a big assist from the White House—sent a once-reluctant Keating into the Senate campaign. He was nominated unanimously.

A telephone call to Keating from Vice President Nixon helped end Keating's reluctance. The White House said Nixon

Coffee Salesman Says He Will Fight Arrest

An outraged coffee salesman has told local police he "will fight in court" the arrest of one of his salesmen for violating the borough's Green River ordinance which prohibits door-to-door and street corner huckstering.

Eighteen-year-old Harry E. Thompson of Erie was picked up Monday in the Conewango avenue district after telling a housewife he had permission to sell door-to-door by a "letter from the police chief."

A hasty call to Police Chief Mike Evan led to a quick appearance for the vendor of Cook Coffee. Hauled in along with Thompson were four other salesmen who were not charged. Thompson posted $100 bond after pleading not guilty before Peace Justice Martha Lawson. A hearing will be held Sept. 9. Sales manager John Bart of Erie has promised the court fight.

According to Chief Evan, the arrested man was selling everything from tea bags to coffee on a premium plan. Last salesman apprehended for a Green River violation paid $10 fine and $5 costs.

SCOUTS PAINTING JAYBIRD REMINDERS

Scouts from First Presbyterian Church Troop 8 have been painting the town white the past two nights. Their slogan: "Cross At Crosswalks."

Troop members Dennis Bonace and Ralph Anschuetz who have supervised the project state it is part of a three-point safety program instituted by the troop. The scouts, their stencils and pump sprays plan to paint the white reminder on strategic curbs throughout the central business district. Police Chief Mike Evan said the project was fully in accord with department safety procedures and added it was ironic the young would set the example.

church of Corry, named as chairman; the Rev. Glen Klammer, of Calvary Baptist church in Union City, serving as clerk of the session. The visiting clergymen and others were then formally invited to share in Council privileges, but without vote in the final executive action.

The Rev. Ernest A. Hook, father of the candidate, presented his son for examination; following two and one-half hours of listening and questioning, members were enthusiastic in commending the young man for ordination.

Following supper at the State Dinor, the group met in the church for the ordination. Dr. Charles C. Ryrie, president of Philadelphia College of the Bible, gave the message, based on the second chapter of First Thessalonians, with emphasis on verse four.

The Rev. Allison Griffiths, Mostertown, gave the charge to the church; Pastor Hook, the charge to the candidate; the Rev. Fred Marshall, Brocton, offered the ordination prayer; Rev. DeBoer welcomed the newly-ordained minister to pastoral fellowship.

Miss Margaret Hook, with Mrs. Paul Hook at the piano, sang "So Send I You"; the Rev. Richard Marshall, gifted song leader from New Castle, led congregational singing.

The new minister will preach in his home church at 11:00 a. m. Sunday and, with his wife, will return next week to Dallas, Texas, where he will finish work on a doctor of theology degree from Dallas Theological Seminary.

in-law of former Iowa Democratic State Chairman Jacob Moore, was stricken at his hotel shortly before he would have started for the Senate Office Building.

The committee had planned to question Baker and other witnesses about an envelope full of $100 bills to learn who got the money and what it was used for.

Baker was scheduled for testimony in continuation of the committee's investigation into alleged corruption and terrorism in Teamsters Union affairs.

Baker told the committee last Thursday he could not remember whether he ever had an envelope at the time alleged, a year ago this month. Nor, he said, could he remember whether—if he had it—such an envelope contained $1,000, or from whom he might have received it.

On one point Baker was firm: "I never got paid no $1,000" to arrange labor peace between the Teamsters Union and the Esco Motor Exhibitors Service Co., of McKees Rocks, Pa.

The committee announced it also would call as witnesses George F. Callahan Jr., Esco president, and Edward Weinheimer, a labor consultant to the firm.

Owners of a Des Moines, Iowa, motor court had testified Weinheimer and Baker were guests at their place a year ago, that Weinheimer received three white envelopes by express, and that soon afterward Baker drew a $100 bill from a currency-filled envelope that looked just like one of those Weinheimer had received. They said Baker used the money to pay his bill.

Rackets Witness Says She Had to Quit Job

CHICAGO (AP)—Reports by a restaurant hostess that her boss forced her to quit her job by harassing her after she testified before the Senate Rackets Committee will be investigated by both the U. S. and state's attorneys' offices.

The woman, Beverly Sturtevant, 28, who defied a mob threat against her and testified before the committee in Washington July 17, disclosed Tuesday she quit the Embassy Restaurant in suburban Cicero two weeks ago under pressure.

Waldo Koehler, owner of the restaurant, denied he forced Mrs. Sturtevant to quit the job, saying she left in a "fit of temperance."

Mrs. Sturtevant has been under Chicago police guard since she testified before the committee investigating racketeering in the Chicago restaurant industry. She told the committee that she and other employees of the Embassy were intimidated by union officials to force them into the Local 450, Hotel and Restaurant Employees Union. Committee member, lauded her for testifying.

OBITUARIES

HELEN F. ANDREWS
Miss Helen Frances Andrews, 21 Jefferson street, died at 4:30 p. m. Tuesday in Warren General Hospital, aged 58 years. She was born in Garland October 16, 1899, but had lived in Warren for many years and was a member of First Presbyterian church.

Surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Jessie Bogart, Mrs. Sarah Francis and Mrs. Mary Louise Amy, all of Warren; also two nieces and one nephew. Her father, Earl Andrews, preceded her in death in 1952; her mother, Frances Andrews, in 1943.

The Rev. Frank Kehrl will conduct services in her memory at 1:00 p. m. Friday, with interment following in the Presbyterian cemetery at Garland.

Penney Railroad July Report Shows Losses

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad reports it lost $4,978,000 this July, compared with a profit of $1,035,100 for July of last year. But the railroad expects to show a profit this month.

The PRR said Tuesday the deficit for the first seven months of 1953 was reduced to $11,831,000 by the inclusion of retroactive mail pay totaling more than 19 million dollars. Net earnings for the first seven months of 1952 were $13,307,000.

David C. Bevan, a vice president who issued the report, said earnings for August would definitely be in the black. He said the July loss was caused in part by the annual coal miners holiday and other vacation shutdowns. In addition, he said, shippers tended to delay shipments until the Aug. 1 effective date for repeal of the freight excise tax.

Smashing Approval For Faubus Appeal

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas House and Senate, a few minutes apart, gave smashing approval to Gov. Orval Faubus' legislation to close Arkansas school rather than submit to forced integration. The Legislature obviously raced the clock to confront the U. S. Supreme Court with Faubus' entire six-bill package before the high tribunal meets Thursday to consider the Little Rock desegregation controversy. The House passed the school-closing measure 94-1. The Senate passed the same bill 55-0. Entire passage of the Faubus program, requested Tuesday in his speech to a joint opening session, was a foregone conclusion.

CBS Inquiry

(From Page One)

NEW YORK (AP)—The Columbia Broadcasting System says its intensive week of inquiry into all quiz shows currently carried by the TV network has failed to turn up any improper procedure.

The probe was begun, CBS said, because of newspaper accounts that the Manhattan district attorney's office has evidence of irregularities in quiz programs being broadcast.

CBS' statement was in a telegram to David S. Worgan, executive assistant to Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan.

Dotto, a TV quiz, suddenly was withdrawn from the CBS and NBC television networks 11 days ago by its sponsor, the Colgate-Palmolive Co.

An investigation was begun by the district attorney's office after a standby contestant reportedly complained to the Federal Communications Commission that another Dotto contestant was fed answers.

Worgan's office said its investigation is continuing but that it is too early to come to any conclusion.

Neither CBS, NBC nor the sponsor of Dotto has yet explained the program's cancellation.

Judge Alexander C. Filick, Jr. verified in May that the fee should have remained at 50 cents per "instrument." Still coming to Prothonotary's and Register and Recorder's offices: the difference between the rightful 50-cent fee and the 10 cents they were told to charge and adjust for during all of 1957. Boy Running Away in Family Car Soon Halted

DETROIT (AP)—Ten-year-old Desmond McDuffie had an argument with his widowed mother Tuesday night and decided to return to his former home in Memphis, Tenn.

Desmond got out his mother's car and left. He got about two miles from home before he gave up. Police said the boy struck at least 14 parked cars before crashing through a fence and flattening the back porch of a house. Desmond fled on foot.

Police found him hiding under a pile of cartons at a nearby grocery.

Letter Carriers Spend Their Time Parading

That's not all! Spokesmen said their marching bands will march—and play—through downtown San Francisco daily the remainder of the week.

Ticker Tape Parade For Submarine Crew

NEW YORK (AP)—The city's three-day salute to Cmdr. William R. Anderson and the crew of the atomic submarine Nautilus reached a climax today with a ticker-tape parade up lower Broadway.

At the Brooklyn Navy Yard, a skeleton crew kept watch on the blue-black ship, which sailed under the North Pole icecap to history and on a record-smashing race across the Atlantic.

Thursday, the Nautilus will leave for New London, Conn., her home port.

Mexican Students Strike Over Bus Fare Increase

MEXICO CITY (AP)—President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines has stepped in to seek the end of a five-day university student strike protesting bus fare increases in Mexico City.

His secretary Benito Coquet met with a delegation of about 25 students.

The students said Coquet asked for a 24-hour truce in the student violence which flared over the weekend into bus burnings and other destruction. Ruiz Cortines will try to solve the dispute during the truce, Coquet reportedly said.

Pleasure Jaunt for Bunch of Middleagers

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Grandpa and grandma are going to kick up their heels.

They're some 80 members of the Irene Kaufmann Settlement. And not a one will ever see age 55 again.

They left Tuesday for a 10-day jaunt to the Emma Kaufmann camp in Harmony, Pa., about 30 miles from here, where they'll sing, dance, swim, play checkers and canasta and see movies.

READY TO GO—Sliding down the ways at Visakhapatnam, India, is the motor vessel Rajkumar, marking a milestone in that nation's shipbuilding industry. The launching celebrated the completion of 100,000 gross registered tons of shipping produced at the Hindustan Shipyard.

TOO CLOSE FOR COMFORT — Women snake charmers in Pakistan work with their men and learn to handle cobras in childhood. Here, an aged woman in Dacca is inviting a snake to bite her hand. The snakes are caught in jungles and their venomous fangs removed before they put on these exhibitions.

NIGHTIE LIFE — The nightgown seems to have inspired these new Empire Line evening dresses by Mingolini Gugenheim of Rome, and which were shown during a fashion show at the Plaza Hotel in New York. The dresses are of chiffon, voluminously draped to curtain the figure below the brief bodices, both of which are heavily embroidered.

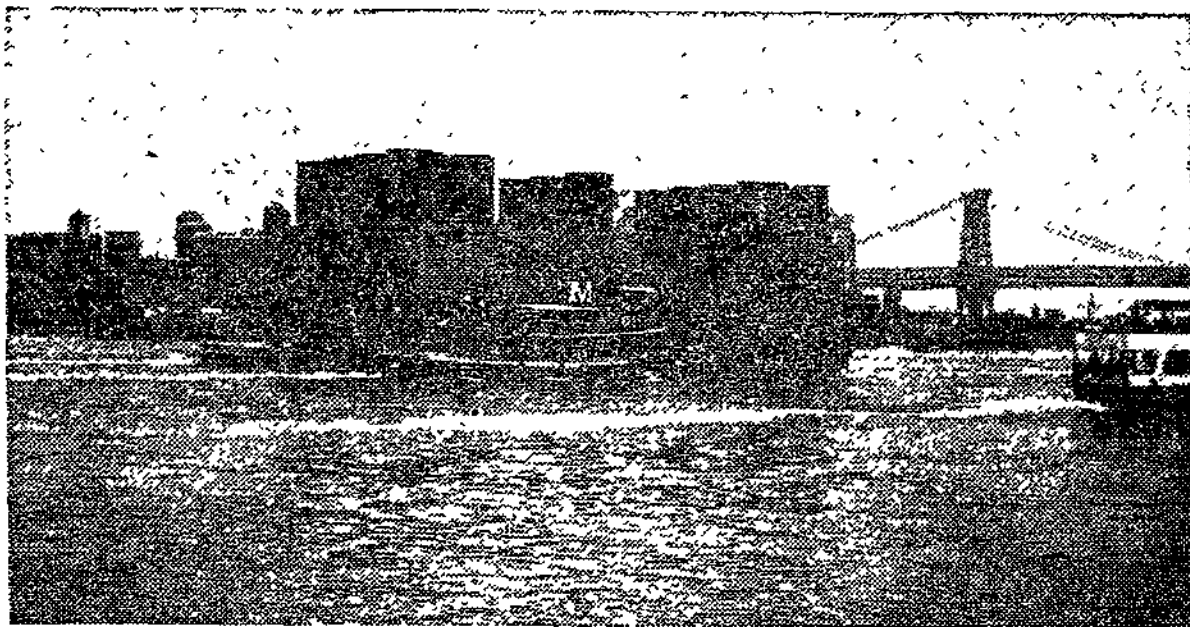

FILLING THE BILL—Down the hatch goes a tasty morsel for one baby bird while another little one seemingly cries: "What about me?" This dinner scene at a nest in Grand Forks, N.D., was made by remote control after the mother and father birds had taken turns harassing the photographer who tried to get as close as possible.

COULD BE—Lying beneath individual markers at a cemetery for pets in Florissant, Mo., are more than 3,000 animals, including dogs, cats, birds and monkeys. Mrs. Max Fischer, wife of the owner of the cemetery, is decorating a grave as her dog Nellie looks on. Nellie may be wondering if she'll wind up here, too.

BRIDGING A GAP—The 1,500-ton bottom section of steel foundation caisson which will support one of the tower piers of the new Throgs Neck Bridge is towed up the East River in New York. What looks like smokestacks are wells to be filled with concrete.

TOO BIG A HURRY — Volunteer fireman Norman Carpenter seems to be showing how he stays cool at a fire on a hot day in Corvallis, Ore. Carpenter was actually washing his car in bathing trunks when an alarm sounded. He just didn't bother to put on his pants before rushing to the scene of the blaze where he's investigating it.

BACK HOME—After appearing in the Miss Universe Pageant in Long Beach, Calif., 20-year-old Clara Coppola is once again relaxing on the beach at Naples, Italy. The black-haired, green-eyed young lady is peeking from behind a fisherman's net which is drying in the sun along the shore.

THEY'RE REEL—Not dishes, but 20 reels of magnetic tape by which the First National Bank of Boston will keep tabs on millions of checking and savings accounts. Employee Carol Celata is shown with the master file records of Datamatic 1000, a new electronic data-processing system. It's the largest single system of its kind in any bank.

THIS ABOVE ALL—Gondolas are usually found in Venice, but this gondola car swings high, wide and handsome over some picturesque scenery near Pinkham Notch, N. H. There are no colorful canals around, but Mount Washington, in the background, makes a mighty impressive sight. It's the tallest peak in the northeastern part of the U.S.A.

SUDDEN ACQUAINTANCE—When tiny Ann Marie O'Neill arrived at New York's La Guardia Airport with her parents, en route to Seattle, she encountered Muggs, a boxer, who was flying home to Rochester. The pooch had been in Manhattan for an American Legion parade, where he trotted his stuff.

Pirates Back in Second Place in National Race

By ED WILES
Associated Press Sports Writer
Maybe it's time to admit those pesky Pittsburgh Pirates are for real.

With only 4½ weeks left in the National League race, the Pirates are back in second place—fighting for their first finish in the first division in a decade. They haven't finished as high as second since 1944, when they wound up 14½ games behind the St. Louis Cardinals.

They're now eight games behind league-leading Milwaukee, moving up from third by beating the Cardinals 5-3 Tuesday night after the Braves had slapped down the Giants again, 7-3, with four some runs.

It was the Braves' eighth in a row over San Francisco. Lew Burdette was the winner.

Robin Roberts, riding a comeback spurt, won his 14th as Philadelphia whipped the Chicago Cubs 10-3. Cincinnati defeated Los Angeles 6-4.

The Bucs wrapped it up on Frank Thomas' two-run, 34th homer for a 4-1 lead in the third inning. Don Gross (5-5) won it in relief of rookie George Witt. Sad Sam Jones (11-10) was the loser. Gene Green hit his 10th homer, with a man on, for the Cards.

Burdette (15-9), who hasn't lost to the Giants since Sept. 16, 1954, picked up his 100th victory in the majors with a six-hitter while packing away a 9-2 record since the All-Star Game. He lost a 3-0 lead when Willie Kirkland hit his 12th home run in the fifth inning and Willie Mays hit his 23rd with a man on in the sixth. But Eddie Mathews then cracked the first of his two home runs for a 4-3 edge in the seventh off loser Ruben Gomez (7-11).

Del Crandall hit his 18th homer in the eighth, and Mathews then hit his 27th and Wes Covington smacked his 23rd in the ninth.

American League Race Tight Behind Leading Yankees

NEW YORK (AP) — Maybe the "weak" American League has been handed a bum rap. The New York Yankees have had a breeze all along, and lead by 12½ games, but the rest of the league is no weaker than the rest of the National League behind first place Milwaukee.

The second place clubs, Pittsburgh in the National and Chicago in the American, have identical Baltimore, fourth in the AL, has a better record (61-62) than Los Angeles, fourth in the NL (60-63). Fifth place St. Louis (60-64) and Detroit (59-63) have the same percentage, .484.

Athletic Manager Will Keep on Making Trades

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Manager Harry Craft of the Kansas City A's scowled.

He had been asked the same question dozens of times and it was beginning to grate on his nerves.

How long were the A's going to supply the New York Yankees with players?

"We'll keep dealing with them as long as we think it's helping us," he answered.

Last week, the A's dealt Murry Dickson, an aging pitcher, to the Yanks in another of a long series of deals.

"Dickson is an old pro," Craft explained patiently. "But he's getting old and we feel we're not going to win the pennant. (The A's are 21 games behind the Yanks, who beat them 6-2 Tuesday night.)

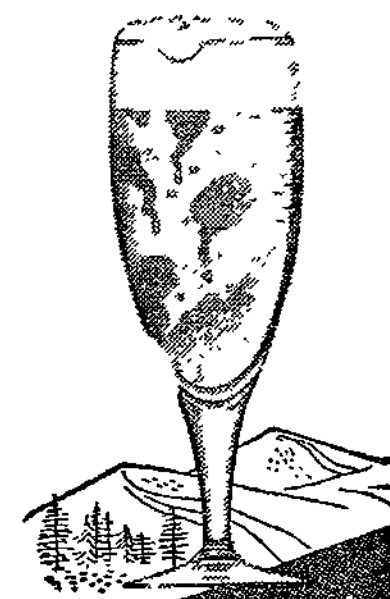

"So we're going to try to build up for next year. We're going to get a pretty good young player from the Yanks when the season is over. I have my pick from two or three. We'll get a good one, you can be sure of that."

As for the bartering with the Yanks: "Our dealings with them have been the backbone of our rebuilding program. We used many of the players we obtained from the Yanks in other deals and we're stronger for it."

Speaking of Sports

Once again, football's grand old man, Major Amos B. Hoople will predict weekly gridiron games for Times-Mirror. In a letter to the Sports Editor, the forecaster writes: "Once more, good friends, I am the bearer of happy tidings. By popular demand, by overwhelming demand I am repeating this fall that famous autumn institution, the Hoople Football Forecasts. Once more you can notify your followers and mine—and between us we have millions of them, eh?—they will be able to read my peerless pigskin prognostications in your sports pages and match their own picks against mine. A most pleasant pastime, egad! This year the first predictions will cover the games of Saturday, Sept. 20, and a new system I have worked out with Prof. Hugo Speamkloftusch, the eminent statistician and inventor of the on-side kick, will assure sensational results. The whole world is familiar with my record, of course. What other expert would even dare to prophesy the startling upsets that I do? And this year — hah-kaff! — I fully expect to accomplish the impossible and outdo myself! Confidentially yours, Major Amos B. Hoople."

Patterson Earns Magazine Award Fighter of Month

NEW YORK (AP) — Floyd Patterson's 12th round knockout of Roy Harris earned "The Heavyweight Champion" "Fighter of the Month" honors and also brought about a shuffle in the heavyweight rankings by Ring magazine today.

Harris was dropped from fifth to seventh among the contenders in the latest monthly ratings.

Cuba's Nino Valdes, conqueror of Mike Dejohn of Syracuse, N.Y., was boosted from sixth to fourth.

Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, held to a draw by Howard King, was demoted from fourth to fifth among the big boys. Undefeated Ingemar Johansson of Sweden, who meets Eddie Machen next month, advanced from seventh to sixth.

Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., Machen of Redding, Calif., and Willie Pastrano of Miami Beach maintained their 1-2-3 places behind the champion.

Gene Armstrong, unbeaten Elizabeth N. J., fighter, became No. 8 in the middleweight rankings by whipping Rory Calhoun of White Plains, N. Y.

Burdette Wins His Ninth Game In Seven Weeks

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Lew Burdette, following his 1957 pattern of a slow start and a fast spurt into World Series stardom, won his ninth game in seven weeks Tuesday.

That kicked the San Francisco Giants, his 7-3 victims, nine games behind Burdette's National League leading Milwaukee Braves.

And it submerged Giants manager Bill Rigney in such gloom that he would say only:

"This club is going to have to wake up."

Before Milwaukee came to town, Rigney had foreseen possibly four Giant victories in the five game series. After three games, the Braves lead 3-0.

Burdette has won 15 games this season — nine of them since the All Star game July 8 — and 100 since his first NL victory in 1952.

Milwaukee's victory was built on Burdette's six hit pitching and 17 hits including two solo homers by Eddie Mathews and one each by Del Crandall and Wes Covington.

Fourteen Entered To Start in 33rd Hambletonian

By DAVID C. BEEDER

DUQUOIN, Ill. (AP)—Fourteen well-matched 3-year-old trotters line up for the 33rd Hambletonian Stake today in a Midwest setting that includes fair weather and one of the country's fastest tracks.

At stake is the fourth richest purse in harness racing history, $106,719.24. The winner's share $62,750.92—is the second highest for the sulky sport.

Post time for the four fillies, nine colts and a gelding is 3 p.m. (est). The one-mile race is over the native clay track of the DuQuoin fairgrounds where pari-mutuel betting is banned.

Two fillies, Emily's Pride and Sandalwood, along with the colt Sharpshooters are the favorites.

Through an unusual draw for post position, winter book favorite Sharpshooter will be in the No. 5 spot next to Emily's Pride. Sandalwood will start in a second tier No. 13 spot.

Ten horses make up the first tier across the track. Four are in the back row for the first heat. Second heat lineups depend on first heat finishes. First horse to take two heats wins.

Introducing - - Grid Coach

LOU HANNA

A potential threat to Section II each year, Lou Hanna will be pushing his Corry Beavers toward another section championship, although he terms the season as a "bad" one, as he begins his 10th year with the Corry eleven.

As head coach, his charges captured Section II championships in 1952, 53 and 56. In the 1951 and 54 seasons, second place honors were taken by the Beavers and last season they finished in third position.

Lou is not only head football coach at Corry Area High, but is athletic director at the institution, also. This will be his 19th experienced year on the coaching field, making him the oldest in Section II.

Coaching record at CAHS for the mentor is 70 wins, 17 losses and 2 ties. In Conference competition, the squad has chalked an impressive 27-8-1 record. Section II Conference was organized in 1951.

A graduate of Slippery Rock, Lou has an overall coaching record of 119 wins, 40 losses and 4 ties.

He will be assisted by Russ Brant, Ken Harvey, Ben Calderone and Roger Hoover.

PONY LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—The Pony League World Series championship narrows down to either undefeated Miami, Fla., or once-beaten Hamtramck, Mich. Hamtramck eliminated Pittsburgh 3-0 Tuesday night.

Miami and Hamtramck play today in what could be the final game of the double elimination tourney. If Miami wins, it takes the championship. If Hamtramck wins, the tournament will be forced into an extra game.

SOUTHERN RACE

DARLINGTON, S. C. (AP) — A score of drivers will gun speedy stock cars around the mile and three-eighths oval at Darlington Raceway today in the start of qualifying tests for Mondays Southern 500.

At stake in the opening day, qualifying trials are the first five starting spots in the big Labor Day race.

Turley's Warm-Up Almost Costs Game

NEW YORK (AP) — An added pre-game warm up almost cost Bob Turley his 19th victory Tuesday night.

The New York Yankee ace finally put it away with a 6-2 decision over Kansas City. He took his regular warm up in the Yankee bullpen, because of a local boys group game played before the Yankee-A's game.

Then he worked for five minutes on the regular warm-up slab next to home plate. That slab isn't raised and he found his stride hitting the ground "before I expected it and I jarred my back."

Phil's Roberts Seems To Have Found Himself

CHICAGO (AP) — Right-hander Robin Roberts, the once peerless craftsman who flopped to mediocrity last year, has found himself.

Roberts, 31, tossed a four-hitter at the Chicago Cubs Tuesday for the Philadelphia Phillies winning 10-3. It was his 14th victory against 11 defeats.

In a late season surge, his seventh win in nine starts gives him an outside shot for 20 victories, a feat which he rattled off from 1950 to 1955. He had a 28-7 mark in 1952.

Yesterday's Stars

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pitching — Skinny Brown, Orioles, went all the way for 1-0, 12-inning victory over the Indians, giving up nine singles, walking but one and striking out three.

Hitting—Eddie Mathews, Braves rapped a pair of home runs, the first breaking a 3-3 tie in the seventh inning, in 7-3 victory over the Giants.

Former Caddy Is Leading Field in The U.S. Amateur

By JIM KENSIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

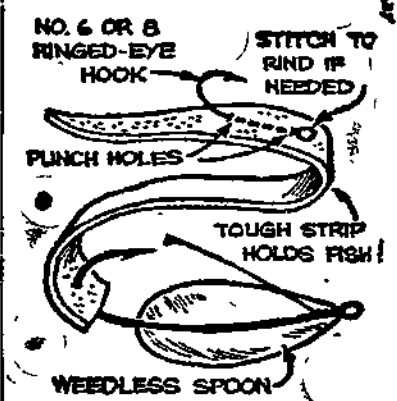

Jerry Pittman couldn't be blamed today if he felt like a caddy all over again. His 36 holes finished, he was still waiting for someone to tell him just how good he did.

The 21-year-old former national caddy champion posted a nifty 7-under-par 68-67-135 Tuesday to lead qualifiers for the U.S. Amateur Golf Championships.

But today 99 late-starting Chicago area hopefuls went after the 11 remaining berths and a round that could take the national qualifying medal honors away from the Tulsa lad.

Jerry put the golfing knowledge to work at Southern Hills Country Club at Tulsa for a one-stroke edge over Ed Tutwiler, West Virginia Amateur champ, who shot a 136 at Huntington, and Bill Deupree Jr. of Fort Mitchell, Ky., who matched it at Cincinnati. Both were 69-68.

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Manager Harry Craft of the Kansas City A's scowled.

He had been asked the same question dozens of times and it was beginning to grate on his nerves.

How long were the A's going to supply the New York Yankees with players?

"We'll keep dealing with them as long as we think it's helping us," he answered.

Last week, the A's dealt Murry Dickson, an aging pitcher, to the Yanks in another of a long series of deals.

"Dickson is an old pro," Craft explained patiently. "But he's getting old and we feel we're not going to win the pennant. (The A's are 21 games behind the Yanks, who beat them 6-2 Tuesday night.)

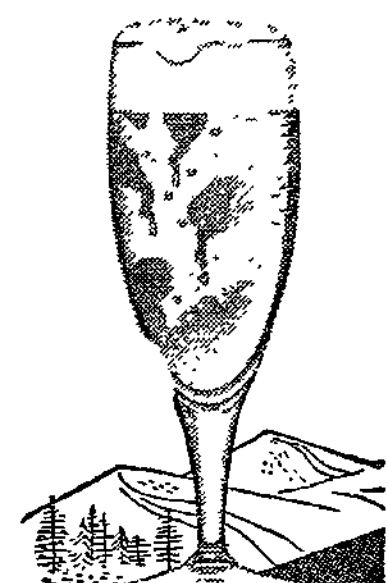

"So we're going to try to build up for next year. We're going to get a pretty good young player from the Yanks when the season is over. I have my pick from two or three. We'll get a good one, you can be sure of that."

As for the bartering with the Yanks: "Our dealings with them have been the backbone of our rebuilding program. We used many of the players we obtained from the Yanks in other deals and we're stronger for it."

Speaking of Sports

Once again, football's grand old man, Major Amos B. Hoople will predict weekly gridiron games for Times-Mirror. In a letter to the Sports Editor, the forecaster writes: "Once more, good friends, I am the bearer of happy tidings. By popular demand, by overwhelming demand I am repeating this fall that famous autumn institution, the Hoople Football Forecasts. Once more you can notify your followers and mine—and between us we have millions of them, eh?—they will be able to read my peerless pigskin prognostications in your sports pages and match their own picks against mine. A most pleasant pastime, eh? This year the first predictions will cover the games of Saturday, Sept. 20, and a new system I have worked out with Prof. Hugo Spearm-koflutsch, the eminent statistician and inventor of the on-side kick, will assure sensational results. The whole world is familiar with my record, of course. What other expert would even dare to prophesy the startling upsets that I do? And this year — hah-kaff! — I fully expect to accomplish the impossible and outdo myself! Confidently yours, Major Amos B. Hoople."

Patterson Earns Magazine Award Fighter of Month

NEW YORK (AP) — Floyd Patterson's 12th round knockout of Roy Harris earned the heavyweight champion "Fighter of the Month" honors and also brought about a shuffle in the heavyweight rankings by Ring magazine today.

Harris was dropped from fifth to seventh among the contenders in the latest monthly ratings.

Cuba's Nino Valdes, conqueror of Mike DeJohn of Syracuse, N.Y., was boosted from sixth to fourth.

Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, held to a draw by Howard King, was demoted from fourth to fifth among the big boys.

Unbeaten Ingemar Johansson of Sweden, who meets Eddie Machen next month, advanced from seventh to sixth.

Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., Machen of Redding, Calif., and Willie Pastrano of Miami Beach maintained their 1-2-3 places behind the champion.

Gene Armstrong, unbeaten Elizabeth, N. J., fighter, became No. 8 in the middleweight rankings by whipping Rory Calhoun of White Plains, N. Y.

Burdette Wins His Ninth Game in Seven Weeks

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Lew Burdette, following his 1957 pattern of a slow start and a fast sprint into World Series stardom, won his ninth game in seven weeks Tuesday.

That kicked the San Francisco Giants, his 7-3 victims, nine games behind Burdette's National League leading Milwaukee Braves.

And it submerged Giants manager Bill Rigney in such gloom that he would say only:

"This club is going to have to wake up."

Before Milwaukee came to town, Rigney had foreseen possibly four Giant victories in the five game series. After three games, the Braves lead 3-0.

Burdette has won 15 games this season — nine of them since the All Star game July 8 — and 100 since his first NL victory in 1952.

Milwaukee's victory was built on Burdette's six hit pitching and 17 hits including two solo homers by Eddie Mathews and one each by Del Crandall and Wes Covington.

Fourteen Entered To Start in 33rd Hambletonian

By DAVID C. BEEDER
DUQUOIN, Ill. (AP) — Fourteen well-matched 3-year-old trotters line up for the 33rd Hambletonian Stake today in a Midwest setting that includes fair weather and one of the country's fastest tracks.

At stake is the fourth richest purse in harness racing history, $106,719.24. The winner's share $62,750.92 is the second highest for the sulky sport.

Post time for the four fillies, nine colts and a gelding is 3 p.m. (est). The one-mile race is over the native clay track of the DuQuoin fairgrounds where pari-mutuel betting is banned.

Two fillies, Emily's Pride and Sandalwood, along with the colt Sharpshooters are the favorites.

Through an unusual draw for post position, winter book favorite Sharpshooter will be in the No. 5 spot next to Emily's Pride. Sandalwood will start in a second tier No. 13 spot.

Ten horses make up the first tier across the track. Four are in the back row for the first heat. Second heat lineups depend on first heat finishes. First horse to take two heats wins.

Introducing ... Grid Coach

LOU HANNA

A potential threat to Section II each year, Lou Hanna will be pushing his Corry Beavers toward another section championship, although he terms the season as a "bad" one, as he begins his 10th year with the Corry eleven.

As head coach, his charges captured Section II championships in 1952, 53 and 56. In the 1951 and 54 seasons, second place honors were taken by the Beavers and last season they finished in third position.

Lou is not only head football coach at Corry Area High, but is athletic director at the institution, also. This will be his 19th experienced year on the coaching field, making him the oldest in Section II.

Coaching record at CAHS for the mentor is 70 wins, 17 losses and 2 ties. In Conference competition, the squad has chalked an impressive 27-1 record. Section II Conference was organized in 1951.

A graduate of Slippery Rock, Lou has an overall coaching record of 119 wins, 40 losses and 4 ties.

He will be assisted by Russ Brant, Ken Harvey, Ben Calderone and Roger Hoover.

PONY LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — The Pony League World Series championship narrows down to either undefeated Miami, Fla., or once-beaten Hamtramck, Mich. Hamtramck eliminated Pittsburgh 3-0 Tuesday night.

Miami and Hamtramck play today in what could be the final game of the double elimination tourney. If Miami wins, it takes the championship. If Hamtramck wins, the tournament will be forced into an extra game.

Turley's Warm-Up Almost Costs Game

NEW YORK (AP) — An added pre-game warm up almost cost Bob Turley his 19th victory Tuesday night.

The New York Yankee ace finally put it away with a 6-2 decision over Kansas City. He took his regular warm up in the Yankee bullpen, because of a local boys group game played before the Yankee-A's game.

Then he worked for five minutes on the regular warm-up slab next to home plate. That slab isn't raised and he found his stride hitting the ground "before I expected it and I jarred my back."

Phil's Roberts Seems To Have Found Himself

CHICAGO (AP) — Right-hander Robin Roberts, the once peerless craftsman who flopped to mediocrity last year, has found himself.

Roberts, 31, tossed a four-hitter at the Chicago Cubs Tuesday for 10-3. It was his 14th victory against 11 defeats.

In a late season surge, his seventh win in nine starts gives him an outside shot for 20 victories, a feat which he rattled off from 1950 to 1955. He had a 28-7 mark in 1952.

Yesterday's Stars

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pitching — Skinny Brown, Orioles, went all the way for 1-0, 12-inning victory over the Indians, giving up nine singles, walking but one and striking out three.

Hitting — Eddie Mathews, Braves rapped a pair of home runs, the first breaking a 3-3 tie in the seventh inning, in 7-3 victory over the Giants.

SPEED ZONE
New speed limit signs were erected in Clarendon Borough last evening. Limits are 35 through residential section, 15 through business section and Chapman Dam road intersection. The three-man police force will be enforcing borough laws in order to maintain sensible driving in the vicinity.

FUND FOR INVALID
Collection boxes have been placed in several business houses in Titusville and Hydetown to aid Jimmy Burrows, now in a serious condition at the Cleveland Clinic. On August 16, he was critically wounded by a 30-30 bullet accidentally discharged from a gun in the hands of his playmate, 15-year-old Gary Crawford. Miss Francis Fleming, secretary of the Titusville Red Cross, said the organization would supply all blood needed and the services of a private nurse for three days. The mother, Mrs. Robert Burrows of Hydetown, who has been at his bedside continuously since admitted to the clinic, is near collapse from exhaustion.

ERIE COURT SESSION
One murder and a manslaughter case were among those scheduled for action by the Erie county September Grand Jury which convened Monday morning. Some 155 defendants are involved, many of them for motor violations. Charged with murder is John Gorecki, 40, Erie, accused of the June 18 pistol slaying of Joseph Duska, 43. After the grand jury hears the case, Gorecki will be sent to Warren State Hospital for a mental examination. Malcolm Stuart, 23, of R. D. 1, Girard, is scheduled for grand jury action on a manslaughter charge in connection with the deaths of three persons in a traffic accident March 2 on Route 20 near Fairview. Killed when their car was struck by Stuart's vehicle were Mrs. Beverly Stevens, 31, of R. D. 1, Girard; Francis B. Johnson, 36, of R. D. 5, Wattsburg, and his wife, Gladys, 30.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

BETTER THAN MINIMUM NEEDED
By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service
If your right-hand opponent doubles your partner's opening bid, you can show a very good hand by means of a redouble. Hence, North's jump to three hearts told his partner that he had good heart support, but was only interested in game if South had a good deal more than a minimum.

South did have more than a minimum and decided to go to game anyway. He would have been well advised not to, since West came up with the defense to beat the hand.
West opened the king of diamonds and studied the whole hand carefully. Declarer certainly held the king of hearts and the ace of clubs. He also ought to hold the king of clubs, but that did not matter too much. If East did have that king, South would be able to finesse against it.
Hence the only chance to beat the hand would be to pick up a spade trick. Should East hold the queen of diamonds he could underlead his ace to put him in, but East had played the three spot on the king. Hence, the only chance would be to find East with the queen of spades.
West promptly shifted to the three of spades and declarer was a dead pigeon.

FOR YEAR SUSPENSION—President Eisenhower tells the world that the United States is ready to suspend nuclear weapons tests for one year starting Oct. 31 if Russia doesn't resume its tests and agrees to negotiate on a world test ban.

TUNNEL "MOON"—What looks like a time-lapse picture of the moon against a background of blurry stars is actually a steel sphere and the patterns formed as water flows around it inside a new water tunnel at the Westinghouse Research Laboratories in Pittsburgh, Pa. The tunnel, containing 13 tons of water moving at 8,000 gallons a minute, is used to study similar flow patterns past more complicated structures, such as the turbine blade of a jet engine.
